Tordondo All-Stars Edge Pacific Champs, 4 to 3

In a see-saw thriller between Tordondo and Pacific All-Stars, both teams earned the title of Little League All-Stars. Both teams played good baseball before Tordondo wiped out the game 4-3. Final pay-off came in the bottom of the seventh inning. Joel Hons the first man up for Tordondo parked one over the right field fence to end the ball game.

First blood was drawn by the Tordondo team when Mike Loney singled and Joel Hons drove him home with a double in the bottom of the third inning. In the fourth inning Tordondo scored another run when Tim Hamilton went all the way to second on a fielders choice when Pacific was getting out Steve Eciarra who had singled and was trying to get to third on a throwing error. Hamilton reached third on a passed ball and scored on an error by the Pacific second baseman on a grounder hit by Jackie Cowan.

PACIFIC SCORES

In the top of the fifth inning Pacific went ahead by a walk to Mike Anderson, a single by Jim Cook and then a home-run blast by Mike Taggart, the Pacific third baseman.

Tordondo tied it up in the bottom of the fifth when Dick Cowden singled went to second on a passed ball and was driven home by Steve Sciarrna with a clutch single.

The sixth inning found both teams scoreless. The same for Pacific in the top of the seventh. Then came Joel Hons, the first man-up in the bottom of the seventh with a home-run and the ball game.

Gene Cook; the winning pitcher, went all the way and had eight strike-outs and gave up only four hits. Carlos Herrera his opposite had six strike-outs and gave up nine hits.

EXPENSIVE JAM

Recent surveys show that the Communists spend more money trying unsuccessfully to jam Radio Free Europe's broadcasts than RFE spends in its entire operation.
