

THE REAL McCOYS—Luke (Richard Crenna) falls victim to an aggravating image in "Baldy," seen Thursday at 8:30 p.m. on ABC-TV, Channel 7.

Buffalo Bill Comes to Life on KNXT Show

The legend of William Frederick Cody alias Buffalo Bill, including little known facts about the Western hero, will be presented by Dr. Herman Harvey on "The Touch of Fame," today July 30, 3 p.m., on Channel 2.

Cody, born in Iowa in 1846, was given the name Buffalo Bill at the early age of 14 when he used to shoot buffalo for the pioneers en route to California. He became a scout during the Indian Wars and later developed the famous Wild West Show. He refused to accept a seat in Congress though already elected without his consent, but took advantage of the "honorable" title which he always used in front of his name.

Dr. Harvey will trace the colorful man's life in show business and politics to illustrate how a legend is formed. Influential in the conservation movement, Cody has been referred to as the Father of Reclamation, introduced the
