

Japanese Flower Arranger Lectures During Buffet

Nautical Theme Highlights Women's Buffet

Nautical atmosphere highlighted the provisional buffet held by the Dianans of Redondo Beach Monday night.

A carnation-covered miniature ship served as centerpiece on the serving table and anchor centerpieces decorated each separate table.

Willie Kondo, noted artist-lecturer and specialist in flower arrangement, gave a demonstration on Japanese arrangement to the women, showing nine displays.

Auxiliary Entertains With Maternity Tea

The Auxiliary of the Little Company of Mary Hospital in Torrance entertained with another maternity tea in the hospital tea room a week ago Sunday. There were over 100 guests attending.

The long tea-table was beautifully decorated with giant blue and purple delphiniums, pink and white shasta daisies arranged in a low, white Chinese floral mounted on a teakwood stand. The pastel flowers blended with the embroidered tea-cloth. Tall, white tapers were used in the silver candelabra.

Mrs. Raymond Reed, chairman of the tea was assisted by Mmes. F. R. Brizius, L. Littrell, C. A. Pattie, R. Cooper, Edwin Gilroy, Michael Walsh, Alvin Schmidt and R.

Plewes. Mrs. V. E. Benstead was flower chairman. Gift chairman Mrs. Evelyn Hardin was in charge of door prizes. The prize was a complete set of baby photographs to be taken at the time of the

Fall Fashion Flare Influences Teenager

Teen-age girls will go back to school with a flare for fashion.

The flared silhouette and flare colors—red and yellow—shape up as the newest and most important fashions for fall, according to the August issue of Seventeen Magazine. The flare stands out in everything from capes and coats to skirts and dresses, starting as high as the waistline or as low as mid-thigh and appearing in circular, bias-cut, pleated or gored versions.

Hard on the heels of the flare for fashion excitement are V-neck pullover sweaters, Austrian-look cardigans, fluffy mohairs; "the kooky look"; low waistlines; stretch pants; country coats; and the new princess and overblouse dresses.

Patterned fabrics will be big, led by magnified traditional tartans, black and white checks and plaids, and wool prints. Colors range from the vivid brights, headlined by flare red and yellow, to the new neutrals, navy and gray. For dates, confection pastels come in shades like "muted gold" and "tender apricot."

The teen-age girls very own "kooky" look really comes into its own this year. Young "kooks" will love this off-beat look in everything from sportswear to sleepwear. Key-noted of "kookiness" include a "Golden Retriever" fake fur full-length coat; a checked Sherlock Holmes rain cape and cap in printed burlap; wool plaid knickers and matching long-torso fringed top; a black felted wool poncho with burnoose-hood; and a shiny black vinyl slicker cape.

College Awards Monetary Grant To Local Girl

Charlene MacLachlan, 3324 W. 182nd St., Torrance, who was recently awarded the Genevieve McEnerney Scholarship, is among a total of 221 students from Southern California communities who have been awarded scholarships to University of California at Berkeley for the 1961-62 academic year, it was announced today by the Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships.

The awards were among 761 scholarships presented this year to undergraduate students throughout the state. The scholarships, averaging about $500 each, are made on the basis of scholarship and need, or according to special conditions established by the donor.

Funds for the scholarships are made available through private gifts from friends of the University, the University's Board of Regents, and from the scholarship program of the California Alumni Association.
