Auxiliary Holds Writing Contest

The opening of its 27th annual National High School Writing Contest was announced recently by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The topic will be "America the Beautiful—How Long Without Clean Water?"

Students in all public, private and parochial high schools are eligible to enter the contest. National prizes are: first, $1,000 cash; second, $500; third $250; fourth $100, and 20 other cash awards for honorable mention. State and local contest winners receive additional Auxiliary awards which vary with the community.

The writing contest was begun by the V.F.W. Auxiliary in 1935 to encourage young people to think and write on patriotic subjects. During the last school year more than 30,000 students entered the national contest. Judge Albert Saperstein, Miami Beach, Fla., served as chairman of the national judges.

Further information on the 1961-62 contest may be obtained from local Auxiliary units, or from the Contest Department, V. F. W. Auxiliary, 406 West 34th Street, Kansas City 11, Mo.

Auxiliary members annually give more than three million dollars, and more than six million hours, to volunteer service for hospitalized veterans and their families, community service, Americanism programs, assistance to youth groups, civil defense and legislation benefiting veterans and their families. Members are the wives, mothers, sisters, daughters and widows of veterans who have served overseas in the U.S. armed forces, or women who have themselves had overseas service.

including the cocktail party, the fashion show and the recent picnic. A sound film, "That They May Live," will also be shown. This film, which is loaned by the County Life Guard Association, explains the method of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

A business meeting will be conducted by President Mrs. John Adams. Plans for a party, "Pink Elephants on Parade" to be held on September 30, will be discussed by Social Chairman, Mrs. Ronald Eisman.

All members are asked to bring items of canned goods to help provide a stockpile of food to be used in Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for needy families.

There will be an Exchange Table for which all members may bring outgrown clothing or other items. These articles are then sold to members at a nominal cost.

This meeting is open to all members and prospective members. For membership information, Mrs. Gordon Anderson of Palos Verdes Estates may be contacted.
