

Members of CDA Surprise Juniors

A surprise "Come As You Are" breakfast was held last Monday, August 7, at Redondo Beach City Park honoring members of Junior Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Catholic Daughters of America.

Mmes. Richard Abshear, junior chairman; Roger Ste-Marie, co-chairman and Stacy Rodman, secretary of Junior Council Board, started the rounds of picking up the members of this local Junior Court at 8 a.m. Many of the young ladies, in keeping with the theme of "Come As You Are," were brought to the breakfast in their night clothes and robes, mu mus, bathing suits, shorts and jeans. Anyone making changes had to pay a forfeit.

A breakfast of orange juice, pancakes, sausage and hot chocolate was served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Adrian Engel assisted by Mrs. Laura Dupont between the hours of 9 to 11:30 a.m.

Young ladies attending this surprise fun-filled morning event were the Misses, Teresa Griffin, Christine Walker, Teresa Solmonson, Linda Ste-Marie, Diane Clark, Donna Dudikoff, Kathy Ehmke, Barbara Fox, Nancy Barkowski, Jeanette Acree, Patricia Brady, Diane Figueras, Patti Raso, Cynthia Somers, Penny Saben, Marlene, Roberta, Linda and Kathy Shannon.

Additional gaiety taking place during the event was a peanut hunt. Prizes were awarded to the girls who found a silver and a gold peanut and also the girls who found the least and the most peanuts.

Movie and still pictures were taken by Mmes. Abshear and Ste-Marie throughout the morning. These pictures will be shown to the girls at their next court meeting.

Coming events being planned for and by the members of Junior Court Our

Champagne Flight Theme Highlights Affair

Diana members, provisionals and guests are invited to hop aboard the "Madhatter's Western Champagne Flight," arriving at 1010 Monterey Blvd. Hermosa Beach, Saturday, August 26, at 11:30 a.m.

Circuit Minister To Attend Witness Assembly

Russell Cantwell, circuit minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, will conclude his circuit activity next week to attend the United Worshipers District Assembly in San Francisco. According to Leonard Olliff, presiding minister of the Torrance Congregation, Cantwell will be among the 30 or more circuit ministers participating in the six-day assembly program which begins Tuesday, August 29.

Cantwell visits the Torrance Congregation every five or six months to help all associated ministers to improve their teaching ability. He also addresses the group several times during his week's visit, outlining new things learned and subjects of current interest in relation to fulfillment of Bible prophecy.

For the past several weeks, the circuit minister has been encouraging all congregations in this area to make arrangements to attend the San Francisco gathering. "Because it promises to be a milestone in the forward movement of the New World Society of Jehovah's Witnesses earth-wide."

"Entire congregations of the Witnesses are expected to be in attendance at Candlestick Park for the largest assemblage of Jehovah's Witnesses on the West Coast," Cantwell said.

"Speakers from world headquarters of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York as well as many district and circuit ministers will contribute much information on the Bible's role in modern day events.

Nathan H. Knorr, president of the Society will also be on the program several times and will deliver the public discourse, "When All Nations Unite Under God's Kingdom," Sunday, September 3.
