

A LITTLE BOY and his teddy bear went to a party Thursday afternoon at Harbor General Hospital. Gary Henderson, seven, of Torrance, was one of many children treated by members of "Volunteers for Children." The group is composed of women who volunteer their time to help at the hospital. The party was held in ward C-8.

MRS. A. B. COWIE, chairman of the party, was in charge of the refreshment table. The children were served punch and cupcakes. Each month Volunteers for Children gives a birthday party and each child receives a gift.

EIGHT-YEAR-OLD DIANE NUNNERY has a new playmate—a doll, which every little girl loves. Helping her is Mrs. George Morehart, president of the Volunteers. In order to raise money for future activities, the group is sponsoring a rummage sale, Thursday through Saturday, Sept. 7 to 9, at 1512 Cravens in Torrance.

Gateway Chairmanships Ratified; Plans Made for Coming Events

Getting off to an enthusiastic start was the Gateway Council Parent-Teacher Association at its first board meeting Tuesday, August 29, at Scott Playground, Wilmington. Mrs. John Blackmon, president, presided.

The following chairmanships were ratified, Mmes. Paul Swigart, international relations; Ben Scott, coordinating council representative; Walter Stockwell, clipping chairman, Wilmington area; Ed Holloway, clippings chairman, Lomita area.

J. Bernard Donahue, principal of Banning High School will serve as the principal representative on the council executive board. Also ratified were Mmes. A. G. Schilling, hospitality chairman, and Armen Jones, juvenile protection chairman.

The resignation of Mrs. Frank League, music chairman was accepted. Mrs. George Weeks, first vice president and program chairman for the council, presented the program and theme for the year "Let Your Council Be Your Guide."

The first council meeting will be at Gardena High School, October 2 at which time a film entitled "Narcotics — The Decision" will be presented by Dwight E. Lyons, associate superintendent of the Los Angeles City Board of Education.

Mrs. Blackmon was elected to represent Gateway Council on the Harbor Welfare Planning Council. Reports were given by Mmes. Wesley Lee, treasurer, David Goolsby, secretary, Lee Speirs, membership chairman and E. G. Croom, parliamentarian.

Mrs. D. W. Ten Eyck, special projects chairman, requested members to bring scrap materials and trimmings to the Oct. 2 council meeting. These will be delivered to the women prisoners at Terminal Island to be used in making doll clothes for underprivileged children.

Mrs. Croom stressed the importance of members attending the School of Information to be conducted Sept. 21 by the officers and chairmen of Los Angeles Tenth District in the Harbor area.

Moose Activities Include Parties

Activity is the theme lately of Moose Torrance Chapter 44. Mrs. George Clay sang at the Long Beach Veterans Hospital recently with Al Sonota and his orchestra. Mrs. Clay participated in a charity show sponsored by Sonata.

The Torrance Teens, a group sponsored by the local Moose chapter, held a car wash Saturday and the teens are planning a beach party and Weiner roast at Playa Del Rey. Other teen activity included a dance Aug. 19.

Women

Suzann Price ... Women's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1512

Co-op Nursery Re-Opening Soon

Preparations for the opening of the Torrance Co-operative Nursery School are underway. Monday Sept. 18, marks the first day of nursery school, which will be highlighted by an orientation for the mothers on nursery school procedures. Mrs. Alvin Kaye, school director, will speak.

Coffee and donuts will be served as mothers prepare the school for the arrival of the kiddies. Thereafter school will be in session as regularly scheduled.

Parents interested in obtaining more information concerning the nursery program may contact William Campillo, president, 4102 W. 175th St., Torrance.

St. Philomena PTA Appoints Chairmen

At a recent board meeting, Mrs. Clarence Turner, president of the Women's Council announced new chairmen and room mothers for the forth coming year at St. Philomena Catholic School, Torrance. School will open on Tuesday Sept. 5 under the supervision of the Carmelite Sisters of the Third Order.

New chairmen are: Mrs. Edwin Kollmyer, school co-ordinator; and Mrs. Edward Germany, assistant co-ordinator. Room mothers are Mmes: Frank Sapien and Herbert Winkler, first grade; William Brown and Robert Gese, second grade; Ralph Souza and John Grundy, third grade; Armando Silvas and James Mangano, fourth grade; Chuck Margis and Mike Marinovich, fifth grade; Robert Turner and Kenneth Joyce, sixth grade; Duane Osburn, seventh grade.

Other chairmen are: Mmes. Arthur Morin and Mrs. William Hopkins, first Friday breakfast; Mmes. Fred Hudson and Rudolph De Leon, book covering; Mrs. Leonard Galati, sewing and Mrs. Frank Hamryok, nurse.

Other coming events discussed before refreshments were served by Mmes. William Hopkins and Anthony Silva, were: St. Marks Guild would have charge of September altar duties under the direction of Mrs. Leo Dube.

St. Theresa's Guild would have a baked goods sale on September 10, after each mass in front of the church, 21900 S. Main St.

The men of the parish at St. Philomena Catholic Church will hold a social Sept. 9 at 8 p.m. in the school hall.

William Hopkins, president of the men's council will be in charge and assisted by John McGrath, Fred Zangger, William Martinez, and Fred Pfadt.

Donations will be $1.25 and refreshments will be served. The public is invited to attend.

Miss Barber Weds Paul Y. Kobayashi

Residing at 2424 Longdale, Los Angeles, are newly-weds Johnnie and Paul Kobayashi, who were wed August 12 in Harbor City Foursquare Church.

Mrs. Kobayashi is the former Johnnie Maxine Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donovan Barber of 22948 Menlo, Torrance. The bridegroom is from Hawaii.

The couple were wed by Rev. Marion Phis in a double-ring evening ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a gown of chantilly lace carried white orchids and staphanotis on a white Bible. Honor attendant was Mary Lee Worley and bridesmaids were the Misses Sonya Howard, Lula Vay Bray and Joan Hazelbaker. All were gowned alike in red silk organza over red taffeta. They carried flowers flown from Hawaii.

Flower girl was Miss Jane Howard, who also wore red and carried a white basket of carnation petals.

Best man was Harold Kobayashi, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were William Barber, brother of the bride, Ed Green and Leonary Helg. Ring bearer was Bruce Howard.

Mother's Gown The bride's mother wore a lilac lace dress with matching accessories and wore a white orchid corsage.

The couple took a wedding trip to northern California and Oregon.

Mrs. Kobayashi graduated from Life Bible College and is director of Christian education at Foursquare Church. Her husband is attending Life Bible College and upon his graduation the couple will return to Hawaii to minister there.

Marina District Meeting Sept. 15

The Marina District, 18, C.F.W.C. executive board will meet Friday, Sept. 15, at 10 a.m., at the Inglewood Woman's Club, 325 North Hillcrest Blvd., Inglewood.

Mrs. O. S. Larabee, president, will conduct the meeting and will be assisted by Mrs. Ervin W. Graf, first vice president and dean of presidents, and Mrs. A. Ben Ellery, second vice president and dean of chairmen.

The vice chairmen of the district and the vice presidents of the units of the district, are invited to attend this meeting, along with district chairmen and presidents. Mrs. Edwin N. Stansel, president of the Inglewood Woman's Club, will welcome members.

Membership Tea Held

The Lioness Club held a membership tea Saturday at the home of Mrs. Clarence Clark of Torrance. Serving were the president, Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, and membership chairman, Mrs. Milton Isbell. Pink carnations decorated the serving room. Clarence Clark of the Lions Club presented the women with a bouquet in honor of the tea.

Prospective members attending were Mmes. Tom Burchfield, Robert Williams and John Pellerin. Special guests included Bill King, Lions president; Fred Boren, first vice president and Miss Susan Clark.

CANDLE-LIGHT CEREMONY ...

Dyann Davey Becomes Bride of T. E. Shaver

In a candle-light ceremony in South Bay Christian Church Miss Dyann Rae Davey and Thomas Eugene Shaver were wed recently by Rev. Dr. Hugh Williams.

The bride is the daughter of the Cecil Frank Daveys, 2436 W. 233 St., Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robert Shaver of Gardena.

The bride wore a white organza over white taffeta gown with scoop neck and short sleeves. The gown was embroidered with an organza bodice and side panels and had a white satin sash with butterfly bow in back.

Chapel-length Veil Her chapel-length tulle veil hung from a crown of Austrian crystal and pearls. The bride's bouquet was composed of white stephanotis, symbidiums, and two large white orchids.

Maid of Honor Joanne Timmons wore a beige organza over taffeta gown with scoop neck and short sleeves. The bouffant skirt was accentuated by an organza bow at the waist.

Bridesmaids, dressed in maize organza gowns identical to the honor attendant's, were the Misses Donna Arrasmith, Lao Spall and Joyce Wayt.

Bridegroom's Attendants Robert D. Shaver was his brother's best man. Ushers were Douglas and Ralph Shaver and Robert Mung.

Mrs. Davey, mother of the bride, wore a royal blue satin dress with green embroidered flowers, and wore matching gloves and hat. The bridegroom's mother wore beige lace over beige taffeta dress and a pill box and gloves.

Wedding Trip After a wedding trip to San Francisco, the couple will reside at 25336 1/2 Oak St., Lomita.

Mrs. Shaver is a graduate of Torrance High and is attending El Camino. She is employed by Pacific Telephone in Hawthorne. Mr. Shaver graduated from Banning High and is attending Harbor College. He is employed by Quaker Oats Co., Wilmington.

South High Girls Sponsor Picnic

The Girl's League of South High School will sponsor a Big and Little Sister Picnic, on the South High Campus, Saturday Sept. 9, from 10 a.m. to noon.

All new girl students are invited to attend. Everyone will meet in the gymnasium to begin the day's festivities. Refreshments will be served by the Girl's League.

MRS. THOMAS EUGENE SHAVER ... the former Dyann Rae Davey

Photo by Seeman

Bay Flower Show Winner Announced

A turning carousel with hanging baskets of flowers filled the stage of the Redondo Beach Women's Clubhouse at the recent Midsummer Carnival put on by the South Bay Garden Club.

Approximately 300 people attended.

Decorations in addition to floral displays, included red crepe-paper clowns, hobby horses and colored balloons.

Sweepstakes winner in the show was Mrs. Chas. Eisaman of Torrance. Mrs. James Martin of Manhattan Beach, was second.

Ann Boyle Earns Master's Degree

Winners in the flower arrangement section were Mmes. Florence Leger, first; Lorraine Junge, second; and James Martin, third. In the specimen bloom section winners were Mmes. Chas. Eisaman, first; James Martin, second, and William Cramer, third.

Section III ended in first place tie between Mrs. Chas. Work.

Eisaman, and Arthur Hanger, with Mrs. Oscar Olsson in third place. In the corsage division first place was won by Mrs. Flynn Sturgis, second by Mrs. Ralph Lindsey, and third by Mrs. Linn McClure.

Prize money for card table arrangements went to Mrs. Grace C. Davis, first; Mrs. Ralph Lindsey, second; and Mrs. Ernst Washburn, third. Junior Division winners were: Groig White, Kimberly Eneedy, Mike Lonbock and Robert Lonbock.

MRS. PAUL Y. KOBAYASHI ... nee Johnnie Maxine Barber

Photo by Seeman