

University Graduates Plan Pot-Luck Supper Meeting

First general meeting of Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch of the American Association of University Women will begin with a 6:30 potluck supper and social hour around the pool Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edson Stratton, 1024 Via Mirabel, Palos Verdes Estates.

Prospective members — women graduates of accredited colleges or universities — will be most welcome to join the branch members at this affair, according to Mrs. Thomas Harding, membership chairman, who may be contacted at FR 5-4303.

Presiding at the business meeting to follow supper will be Mrs. Harold O. Simar, new president chosen by the Board of Directors. Mrs. Donald Limerick, previous president, has moved from the area.

Nominating Committee
Mrs. Simar will conduct the election of three members from general membership to act with Mmes. Edwin N. Bobrow and Calvin Warfield, as the Nominating Committee for the year.

Mrs. Ramond Oddone, branch treasurer, will present the budget.

Study group chairmen will be introduced by Mrs. Simar and will tell of their plans and sign up everyone interested in their various activities.

These chairmen will be introduced by Mrs. Simar and will tell of their plans and sign up anyone interested in various activities.

These chairmen include: Mmes. Harry G. Patterson, creative arts; Robert C. Ferguson, elementary and secondary education; Joseph Goodwin, higher education; Dr. Maxine Ziegler, international relations; Fred C. Allen, legislative; James Heusdens, mass media; Frank Fisher, social and economic issues; and Frances Scott, who will be represented by a member of her committee, K. T. Chang, status of women.

Program Chairman
Mrs. H. C. McLendon, who has been chosen to act as program chairman and second vice president, in place of Mrs. Ross Rasmussen, who has moved to the San Francisco Bay area, will also be introduced to the members, as well as the heads of special committees and those performing special duties.

These include: Mmes. Joseph P. Jay and William H. Freudenstein, hospitality; Lee Garwood, policy; John King, bulletin; E. W. Casa-grande and William Fleming, public relations; James D. Conant, auditor; E. N. Bobrow, historian; Calvin Warfield, parliamentarian; Hugh Hixon, corresponding secretary and year books; Donald Randolph, orientation.

Fellowship Awards
Awarding of fellowships to gifted women doing graduate work at home and abroad is a prime purpose of the AA-UW, and each year the Palos

Verdes-Rolling Hills branch has contributed generously to the Fellowship Fund.

A noon luncheon and a display of French and Italian fashions have been arranged by Mrs. William G. Stuart, fellowship chairman as a fund benefit. The luncheon will be Oct. 4.

The branch will meet two of four women studying in this area with support of AA-UW Fellowship awards when Mrs. Stuart introduces Mrs. R. G. Barr of Los Angeles, fellows and grantees assistant for Southern California.

Mrs. Barr will present an American grantee, Dr. Katherine Schaeffer Jizba, oil geologist, and an Indonesian fellow, Miss Suharni Hadikusumo, the first Indonesian scholar receive an international grant, to improve her command of idiomatic English and her ability to teach the language. For several months she worked on the hospital ship City of Hope, in Saigon, South Vietnam.

All arrangements for the potluck supper have been under the direction of Mmes. Jay and Freudenstein, and their committee.

WOMEN PILOTS will attend a three-day conference of the Long Beach Ninety-Nines Sept. 22-24. The women will stay at the Jump 'n Jack Hotel. Featured guest speaker

Saturday will be Dr. Robert Donaldson of North American Aviation. Checking plans with Jack Rogers, hotel manager, are members of the club.

Pharmaceutical Auxiliary Annual Dance With Association Scheduled

The South Bay Pharmaceutical Association and Women's Auxiliary will hold their annual combined installation dinner dance Saturday evening, Sept. 23, at Palos Verdes Country Club.
