Parsons Named Honorary Hill Climb Marshall

Johnnie Parsons, former Indianapolis "500" winner, has been named Honorary Course Marshall for the Lake Casitas Hill Climb, September 30 and October 1, sponsored by the Corvette Owners Club of North Hollywood.

Parsons, who now makes his home in Van Nuys, retired from competition in 1959, following a brilliant 20-year racing career which began at old Gilmore Stadium in 1940. The highlight of Parsons' career, however, was in the 1950 Indianapolis race when he won racing's biggest prize. Incidentally, that was the rain-shortened race that was called at 345 miles; however, Parsons set what was then an Indianapolis record before the race was stopped
