

Warner League Opener Cops 14-0 Victory

Gable House was jumping with lady free game winners in the colored pin event last Monday morning.

GAME WINNERS

Gable House has been featuring for the last several months a lady's day special called "bowl with colored pins." There are totating colored pins in the machines for ten lanes. Here are the rules: If a colored head pin turns up and a strike is made, one free game is awarded; colored pins turn up in the 1-2 or 1-3 pocket positions and a strike is made, you win 10 free games; final and best prize is that if colored pins come up in the 1-2 and 3 positions and a strike is made, 100 free games are awarded.

In just the short time this reporter watched these gals this morning the following ladies won free games: Pat Harold-12 games, Dottie Brown-11, Alberta Castleman-10, Norma Fraser-10, June Gloede-2, Rhea Farley-1, Millie Marvin-1, Jeannine Etcheverry-1, Joan Gendron-1, Stella Wright-1, and Betty Donahue-1.

The price to participate is 35c a line and is available from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

GOOD SCRATCH SERIES

Ran into Margaret Denzer at the front desk at Gable House and was chatting about the fall Centinela Traveling League. Margaret is captain of her team.

It seems Gable's team member, Ann Elliott, shot a terrific scratch series at Hawthorne Bowl last Wednesday morning.

Ann shot games of 238, 202, and 202 for a 642. Ann was thrilled and excited as her book average is only 169.

Ann may have to quit bowling because of her back per doctor's orders, but let's hope she will be back bowling up a storm very soon.

GAL PINNERS

It looks like only the gals were able to put in for trophies last week at Gable. Gals only have to roll a 200 and over while the guys need 250 and over to be mentioned. Makes it a little harder for the guys to win a trophy, doesn't it?

High lady pinner for the week is Marie Matzek who rolled a 235 in the South side Ladies Traveling Scratch League.

Next was Ruth Caudle who struck a hot 225 in the Guys and Dolls league.

Gals on the new advanced Wednesday morning league, Bowling Bags No. one and two, really out did themselves by racking up four 200 games and over.

Alberta Castleman (No. one) lead the girls with a high 226 scratch game and 567 series. Bernie Halbert (No. one) scored a 209; Rose Constantino (No. two) a 206; and P. Yates (No. one) a 202.

Last Tuesday night in the Foresters league, Corene Young rolled a 213; Lydia Owens, ATZGB Girls, a 211; Violet Craig, Tuesday Mixed Five, converted the 6-7-10; and Connie Dunn, Sandbaggers No. Two, converted the 4-7-10.

O.K. fellas, get busy and let's see some high scores in this column next week.

Bellflower Cyclist Cops First in Gardena Race

Jim Hunter, Bellflower, was fourth, and Doug captured Saturday night's opening USMC motorcycle race at Gardena's Western Speedway as he moved into lead on the eighth lap and went on to win the 30-lap event.

Hunter won over Jim Stephens of Reseda while John Baily, of Riverside, was third. Jim Basse, Bellflower, took fourth, and Eberhart Zimmerman, Redondo Beach finished fifth.

Calvin Rayburn, San Diego, took the 10-lap lightweight feature, over Stu Peters of Encino, with Eddie Worth, Manhattan Beach, third. Chick Dimond, El Ca-

the local oval. Doubleheader program is scheduled on the brand new seven turn track with a seven foot jump at the climax of the exciting race. Race is USMC-sanctioned.

Doubleheader Program Slated Saturday At Gardena's Western Speedway Track

A field of over fifty of the West's top motorcycle racers will congregate at Gardena's Western Speedway for a ten event card this Saturday night at 8:15 p.m.

It will be a doubleheader program with class A racing machines up to 500 c.c. (30 1/2 cubic inches) racing on the lightning fast one-third mile clay oval track. Machines under 250 c.c. (15 cubic inches) will race on a brand new seven turn T. T. steeplechase course with a seven foot jump high-lighting the action over the 1/4 mile distance.

Leading riders who will compete include: Jeff Speary,

Bakersfield, Eddie Kretz, Monterey Park; Ronnie Nelson, Palmdale; Preston Petty, Woodland Hills; and Marty Malchow, San Francisco.

CAPTURES TITLE

Speary captured his first USMC main event win of the year two weeks ago at Atascadero riding a Harley-Davidson. Kretz, a former national T.T. champion, will be Triumph saddled. Nelson, and up and coming novice rider, goes on a BSA single. Petty is fresh from winning the 500 lap national T. T. championship at Fayetteville, North Carolina, while Malchow is the present leader in points for the Pacific Coast USMC class "A" championship.

Other who will compete in the nights two 50 lap features include: Roger Reindl, South Gate; Joey Plain, Richmond; Lee Bartkowski, San Pedro; Paul Bostrum, Daly City; Don Sheppard, Vallejo; Charlie Hockie, Torrance; Leroy Rudd, Richmond; Larry Ortnier, Pacifica; and Ray Huff, Modesto.

Action will begin with time trials at 7 p.m. followed by

Two Touchdowns, One Safety, Highlight Of Season's First Game With La Mirada

Torrance's smallest big league athletes, members of the local Pop Warner Football League, kicked off the opener of their season last weekend with a decisive 14-0 win over La Mirada.

The Chargers took their first score on a 17-yard pass from Terry Tideman to Bill Bynum. Team failed on the conversion. In the same quarter Jim Briscoe tackled Aguilera of the Lancers behind the goaline for a safety.

In the third quarter Bynum intercepted a Lancer pass and raced 22 yards for the final touchdown. Again, the conversion failed.

Peevee Oilers, in their first game, were beaten by the Gardena Rainbows, 19-0. Dan Horii scored two touchdowns for the Rainbows on end runs of six and sixteen yards. Gred Briner ran 22 yards for a touchdown after recovering an Oiler fumble. Phil Reed scored the point after touchdown.

Midget Steelers were defeated by the Gardena Bolts, 19-0, with Allan Sutton driving 11 yards off tackle for the first Bolt TD. Steelers smashed conversion attempt. Ronny Uhles returned a Steeler punt 58 yards for the second touchdown and again the team failed on the conversion.

Uhles also scored the last TD on a 60 yard end run and Pat Kennedy scored the point after touchdown.

Oilers and Steelers will journey to Hawthorne Sunday for their next tilt. They will meet the Hawthorne Bees nd Hornets.
