International Festival Needs Exhibit Goods

Have you joined in the search for rare Greek coins, Chinese junks, or Irish lace?

Many South Bayans are unwrapping possessions which came to the United States long ago with ancestors who were moving to America. Others are sorting through souvenirs gathered on trips to India or France, Guatemala or Japan.

Costumes and carvings, prayer rugs and paintings, brooches and blankets—all are interesting and needed for the two day ethnic exhibit during the International Family Festival, at Aviation High School, Redondo Beach, Oct. 21 and 22.

Perhaps you were born in Germany, the Philippines, Sweden, Thailand or another country far from the United States. Do you know the customs and the land? You are needed to act as host or hostess in a booth honoring your former country during this fall festival.

Exhibit chairman, Kenneth Harms urges all interested to join in the fun.

"It's an enriching experience which will bring you pleasure and friendship," he states.

Contact Harms at 2231 Hermosa Ave., Hermosa Beach, FR 9-0675, or Robert Denton, 1543 W. 214 St., Torrance, DA 5-3489.
