Elks' Festivities Include Men's Fashion Showing

A buffet dinner followed by a surprise package of fashions will be in store for Torrance Ladies of the Elks and guests attending the group's annual fashion show Oct. 21 at the Elks Lodge, 1820 Abalone Ave.

The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m., followed by the parade of fashions for men and women. Clothes for women will be supplied by Sylvia's Ladies Apparel of Los Angeles and men's fashions will be from Tine's Men's Store of Torrance.

Models for the evening will be Elk officers, including Mmes. and Msrs. Albion Senti, Harry Alexander, Kenneth McRae, Otto Stiefel, Patrick Huffine and Anthony Alonge.

Narrator for the show will be Juanita Littleton, past president of the Ladies of the Elks.

Doorprize for the evening will be a mink-collared cashmere sweater. Several other prizes will be given away. Helen Lorenz, vice president, is chairman.

Tickets and dinner reservations may be arranged through Mmes. Senti or William Patton.

Employees Group Potluck Dinner Plans Underway

South Bay Educational office Employees Association will hold its first meeting of the year on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the patio at Redondo High School. The potluck dinner, an annual fall event, will feature many unusual dishes, and each person is asked to bring her recipe with her dish.

Mrs. D. L. Baggett, program chairman, will introduce the featured speaker of the evening, Robert Carey Dorr, lecturer and authority on color.

Working in the field for the past 32 years, his practical experience includes decorating nearly 150 hotels all over the American continent, working as designer and decorator for many department stores; designing furniture, lamps, china and fabrics for national manufacturers.

A graduate of the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts, Dorr is now president of Color Key, Inc., and is associated with Vi-Cly Industries, Inc., as Color Key System lecturer and developer. Color Key has separated all colors into only two palettes, resulting in perfect color coordination in home furnishing, wearing apparel, cosmetics, hair tints, paints and wallpapers. In this field are color points of interest for everyone.

The short business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Harry Crock, president. Hostesses for the evening are members at Redondo High School. All educational office

Juniors Slate Movie to Further Anti-Cancer Bout

"Time and Two Women" a film released by the American Cancer Society will be shown to the members, guests and general public at the Torrance Junior Women's Club business meeting, Wednesday at the clubhouse, 1422 Encracia Ave., at 8 p.m., announced Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, junior membership health chairman.

The current campaign of the California Federation of Women's Club, Junior Membership is to conquer uterine cancer, informing members of the community through films and question answer periods with a doctor. The ultimate goal of the club is the untaking of saving lives of 14,000 women who die annually from this type of cancer.

Mrs. Terry Broomfield, an American Cancer Society district executive and a doctor associated with the American Medical Association will be on hand after the film for answering questions from the audience. The interested public is welcome to attend.

Revival Services

Leon and Ruth Brokaw, ministering in music and song, are presenting nightly revival services at First Pentecostal Church, 2147 W. 237 St., Torrance. Services begin at 7 p.m. employees, both members, and non-members, are cordially invited to attend.

Secretaries Hear ECC Professor Talk on Stamps

"Men and Events of Science Commemorated on Postage Stamps" is the subject chosen by Julius Sumner Miller, professor of physics at El Camino College, who will speak before the South Bay Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) at its monthly dinner meeting Oct. 19 at Lococo's Restaurant, Manhattan Beach.

Educated at Boston University, Miller is internationally-known authority on demonstration experiments in physics; an authority on multiple-response test questions in physics, and an expert on the life of Albert Einstein.

He is also technical consultant and adviser to Walt Disney Productions, including the full-length movie titled "The Absent-Minded Professor," and is well known on CBS television programs. He is the author of a book entitled Demonstrations in Physics.

Any secretary, whether or not she is a member of NSA (I), is cordially invited to attend. For dinner reservations call Mrs. H. G. Wells before Oct. 17, at FA 8-4111, ext. 460, between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., or FA 8-7641 after 6 p.m.
