

WINNERS NAMED — Diane Hofberg, of Baldwin Hills, and Marilyn Cravens, 317 Calle Miramar, Hollywood Riviera, were named Sunday as the grand prize winners of two Shetland Ponies given away by the management of the Plush Pony Restaurant.

Lucky Winners of Shetland Ponies Named

Crowds of expectant customers were on hand Sunday at the Plush Pony Restaurant to witness the drawing of two Shetland ponies given away by the management to two lucky ticket holders. Terry Taylor, Miss Redondo Beach of 1961, drew the tickets of Diane Hofberg, 4122 Don Mariano Dr., Baldwin Hills, and Marilyn Cravens, 317 Calle Miramar, Hollywood Riviera, and the two owners of the midget equines were notified immediately.

On hand to officiate at the drawing were Lt. Governor Glen Anderson, and RB Chamber of Commerce manager Dick Fitzgerald.

Co-owners George Kavallis and A. L. Pappas reported that the interest in the drawing was tremendous. Competition for the two ponies has extended since the opening of the new restaurant September 11.
