

Dinner Honors Employees of Great Western

Great Western Savings and Loan Association honored 21 employees at the company's second annual service banquet at the Cockatoo Inn, Oct. 19.

Among the 21 employees, representing over 100 years of continuous service, was Nancy Rossi, 2213 West 170th Street, who received a five year award.

Miss Rossi has been a resident of Torrance for over seven years.

Emil J. Seliga, executive vice president of the association, made the award presentations.

John F. Marten, president of the association, opened the dinner banquet by remarking "the company and management is indeed proud to honor you here tonight. This achievement is a tremendous personal success and the company's steady growth is certainly due to the constant efforts you have contributed."

Great Western Savings is the fifth largest savings and loan association in the nation with seven offices in Southern California.

The offices are located at Seventh and Hill streets; 947 West Manchester Ave., near Vermont; 15112 S. Western Ave., Gardena; 168818 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale; 5098 Faculty Ave., Lakewood; 1440 Lincoln Blvd., Venice and Great Western's executive office at Crenshaw and Vernon.

Chamber Urges Control Law Enforcement

The Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce officially requested the city to strengthen solicitation control laws, according to President Ken Boyd.

Stressing the Chamber was not being critical of the city or any of its officials or personnel, Boyd requested the new ordinance in a communication to City Manager Francis E. Hopkins.

Boyd said a recent "boiler-shop" operation of telephone solicitation has apparently cheated South Bay residents.

"We must put more teeth into our laws," Boyd said. Chamber officials are urging that all applicants for a solicitors license be photographed and fingerprinted and further that they be "checked out" by the Police Department and issued identification cards.

Applicants would be required to pay a fee to defray investigation, and costs under the proposal.

Chamber Manager Dick Fitzgerald said meetings have been held with the City Treasurer Lillian Fowler, City Councilman Norman W. Ruestow, Chief of Police Curt Richardson, and License Inspector Thomas Hoyt, all who agree in principal with the proposal.

County Sheriff Tours Air Base

Los Angeles County Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess was among a score of Southland community leaders inspecting Strategic Air Command Headquarters at Omaha, Neb., this week.

Pitchess received a detailed briefing regarding SAC's current status, in terms of modern missiles, aircraft, and men.

Gen. Thomas S. Powers, SAC commander, acted as host for the group.
