Food Giant
Opens Doors
Thursday

Fun, excitement and prizes for all will be offered Thursday when the new Food Giant Market, 423 S. Hawthorne Blvd., Hawthorne, opens.

Highlight of the opening celebration will be an appearance by Engineer Bill, star of KHJ-TV.

Bill will drive up Saturday at 4 p.m.

The new 18,000 square foot market will be open seven days a week from 9 a.m. until 10 p.m., according to Danny McKenna, manager.

The modern-styled store will contain many new features to surprise shoppers.

The bottle shop will have a cooler stocked with beer and soft drinks.

Wines, cordials, liquors and other alcoholic beverages will be stocked.

A "piping hot" bakery will contain freshly-baked goods ready to serve.

Bread, cake, rolls, cookies and other baked-goods will be ready all through the day.

Choice meats, poultry and seafood will be available.

"It is our job to give a customer everything and anything he wants for his home," McKenna said.

ENGINEER BILL — Of Cartoon Express fame will drive his train-load of fun to the new Hawthorne Food Giant Market Saturday at 4 p.m. New store is at 423 S. Hawthorne Blvd. Bill will have prizes and tricks for all.

Victory Dinner
Scheduled by State Democrats

Volunteer for Victory dinner sponsored by the California Democratic Council will be Dec. 1, according to Paul Ziffren, general chairman.

The dinner will be in the Hollywood Palladium.

The honorary dinner committee is headed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown as chairman, and Sen. Clair Engle as co-chairman.

Lt. Gov. Glenn Anderson, Attorney-General Stanley Mosk, Controller Alan Cranston and all other constitutional officers of the state are also included.

Lenore Barrett, finance chairman of CDC, is executive director for this $25 a plate fund raising dinner.

Principal speaker will be Congressman Richard Bolling of St. Louis, Mo.

As a special feature, the program will include an original script by Leonard Spigelgass, entitled "The Man from Virginia," reflecting Thomas Jefferson's approach to today's political problems.

Norman Corwin is directing, with musical supervision by Johnny Green.

Million Dollar Contest Continues

One hundred Estey chord organs will be given as prizes in history's first $1,000,000 contest, sponsored by Lever Brothers.

The organs are the only musical instruments, or entertainment products of any kind being offered.

The contest is expected to attract more than 25,000,000 entrants.

It is being promoted through advertisements in national magazines, newspapers, direct mail and point of sale materials in grocery stores.

The contest closes Nov. 18.
