Junior Club's "Teenage Miss" Contest Begins

Torrance Junior Woman's Club is looking for "Teenage Miss."

The club's annual contest began this week and will continue through Dec. 15.

Each year the women select a local girl who represents the Torrance unit in the state-wide California Federation of Women's Clubs, junior membership, contest.

To be eligible a girl must have a B or better scholastic average and be a junior or senior in high school.

Personality and activities outside of school, such as hobbies, family, church work and community activity are other qualifications.

This is not a beauty contest.

"When there is so much notoriety given to young people in our society who misbehave, we juniors feel it is especially important that recognition be given to outstanding young citizens in our community," Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, youth chairman, said.

The winner of the contest in Torrance will compete in the Marina District Teenaged Miss Contest which offers a $25 savings bond prize.

The Marina District winner will in turn compete in a state contest.

This winner will be honored at the state convention in San Francisco.

All contest blanks must be completed and returned to Mrs. Boulter or the YWCA by Dec. 15.

Entry blanks are available at the YWCA, and Torrance, McMaster Park, Waverly Park, and El Retiro Park libraries.

Priest Recounts Prison Years

Fr. John Houle, S.J., will recount his experiences as a Communist Chinese prisoner Thursday evening.

He will speak at Nativity Parish Annex, 1401 Engracia Ave., Torrance, at 8 p.m.

A movie, "Red China Outlaw," will be shown during the program.

Recommendations that the

FOOD OR GREASE

Food or grease burning on the stove can be extinguished easily by putting a metal cover over the container housing the fire. Never try to douse this type of fire with water because water will only splatter the burning grease.
