PRESS Sports

Committees representing members of the Gable House Bowl Association have planned their December calendar for upcoming parties and events.

FASHION SHOW — TOURNAMENT
The GHBA is planning a fashion show to be held in the banquet room on Saturday, December 9, at 2 p.m. Fashions will be presented by the Pic-Wic Fashions store, which is located on 1317 El Prado in Torrance; Jewelry by Sarah Coventry; and the coiffure consultant will be Martin's House of Beauty, 23649 Arlington, also in Torrance.

There will be no admission charge and the GHBA girls will model the fashions. Make your plans to attend now.

Other events to take place with the GHBA and the 50 and Over Bowling Club on December 10, a Christmas party which is planned for the children and will be at Gable on December 16, and a New Year's Eve party, time and place undecided.

Anyone interested in joining this association can do so by inquiring at Gable House or by calling Bob Alderman, president, at FR 8-5838.

TROPHY WINNERS
Weekly high pinners at Gable House need a little recognition for their achievements.

For the girls, Donna McLain shot a 220; Inez Paine, 215; K. Liffett, 209; Lila Bozeman, 208; Joyce Williams, 201; and Helen Matosky Ryan, 200.

Splits converted by the ladies include Adele Kulow, 6-7-10; Jean Boden, 4-7-10; Margaret Falkenstein, Methodist Church, 6-7-10.

Darlene Murrill has tried and tried so hard to shoot a 200 game and the closest she has come so far is 197. Let's give her a big congratulations—and what a thrill she will have when she does get those "three" extra pins.

Two men keglers who shot 250 and over are Dale Stackhouse, National Supply, 268, and Wayne Geisenhaver, a 256.

Junior pinners are Dan Bowman, 212; Dick Webster, 203; Dennis Squilact, Junior League, 203; Curtis Williams, 6-7-10; and Mike Donahue, 4-7-10.

SUNDAY FEATURE
Here's a real bargain for you! Last Sunday morning at Gable House, Jerry Homel featured bowling for $1 an hour. Bowling hours ran from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m. Can you believe it that Gable House had a waiting list of 20 people at 7:30 in the morning?

The lane itself was $1 an hour no matter if you had five bowlers using it.

Homel plans to feature this every Sunday morning, so here's your chance to pick up some extra practice at a very low cost. If by chance you come in before 10 o'clock and you get a lane around 11, Homel will still let you bowl for an hour. Don't miss out next Sunday; let's see another big turnout.

Here's a cutie for you—it is called Sublime to Ridiculous. Patterson, New Jersey—Jim Santoro of the National Bowling League's New York team once shot a 300 game. Immediately afterwards, he shot a 119. It was his greatest bowling disappointment. So, it goes to prove that these experiences happen to even the best of bowlers.

Brown vs. Taylor Duel Looms for Pro-Bowl

Jim "The Champ" Brown, have been nominated four times, with Brown having no-contest in the East and Detroit's Nick Pietrosante giving Taylor a run in the West.

The coming midwinter classic would be the fifth straight game for Brown, All-Pro fullback since he left Syracuse to become the greatest pro rusher of all time.

Taylor set a Pro Bowl scoring record of 18 points in his first all-star appearance last January.

Just as they are dominating NFL rushing statistics, Brown and Taylor are running well ahead in balloting for all-star fullback berths in the Eastern and Western divisions respectively. The annual midwinter football classic brings together the picked stars of the two conferences.

The West leads the traditional series, 7-4.

Young 'Admirals' Prepare For Shingle Boat Meet

Scores of boys and girls 12 years and under, from throughout southwest Los Angeles County today are converting common roofing shingles into sailing boats for the Annual Shingle Boat Regatta which will be staged again this year at Alondra County Park Lake, 3535 West Redondo Beach Boulevard, Lawndale, on Friday, November 24, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Sponsoring the Shingle Boat Regatta will be the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation District No. three, according to County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

TROPHIES
Trophies will be awarded in heat races as well as for the sweepstakes. Prizes will also be awarded for best appearing shingle boats.

Parents may assist their children in designing their boats, but they must be sailed in the regatta by the children.

Any child needing assistance and direction in the making of a shingle boat may contact their nearest

Fast Time Set By Lee Leonard

As usual, weekend racing at Little Indy provided lots of excitement for spectators.

"A" fast time was set by Lee Leonard at 7.83, while the trophy dash went to Paul Needle. Main event winners were Harold Fletcher and Paul Needle and Rolene Brown walked off with the semi-main with Bill Scott second. Heat winners were Stan Beringhele, Margo Pickering and Rolene Brown.

"B" fast time was set by Randy Broden who also won both the trophy dash and the main event. Ricky Morrey came in second in the main. Semi-main was taken by Timmy Holt and Larry Kilroy. Junior main went to Mike Pawsey and Jimmy Bingman. Rippy Curry took the Junior semi-main with Michael Barber second. Heat winners were Bobby Hazelwood, Larry K. Kilroy, Tommy Kern, Cathy Westlake and Rippy Curry.

In the stock class Archie Archambeau set fast time at 9.81 David Estey was the main event winner with Marty Holmes second. Semi-main went to Ronnie Long and Dickie Tibbets. Ronnie Long also took the special event. Trophy dash went to Marty Holmes while heat winners were David Estey and Ronnie Long.

Defending champion for the 150-lap even over the half-mile Gardena raceway will be national big car champion and Indianapolis winner A. J. Foyst of Houston.

Foyst will be challenged by the country's top drivers in the USAC-sanctioned race.

Past winners of the popular race, which was launched in 1934 at the old Gilmore Stadium in Hollywood, have included many famous names of racing—Bob Swanson, Ronnie Householder, Mel Hansen, Bill Vukovich, Perry Grim, Joe Garson, Danny Oakes, Bill Zaring, George Amick, Tony Bettenhausen and Johnnie Parsons.

Other conference games going this week are El Camino at East Los Angeles on Friday, Valley College at Long Beach on Saturday and Harbor College at San Diego on Saturday. All four kick-offs are at 8 p.m.

CHAMPIONSHIP
On the line at Bakersfield will be the conference championship and consideration for the Junior Rose Bowl. The game, one of the greatest sports attractions in Bakersfield history, has long been sold out. Compton's 12-6 upset of Glendale last week left Bakersfield and Santa Monica the only perfect record junior clubs in Southern California.

The contest has wrought so much local interest that Bakersfield theaters have booked in closed circuit television of it, even though the struggle is right in town.

The outcome itself revolves on the question of whether Santa Monica's aerial circus, directed by quarterback Rand Carter, can penetrate an almost unbelievable Renegade defense which has yielded only 14 points all season.

Santa Monica still has Bakersfield's juggernaut offense to cope with. To date a total of 21 Bakersfield players have collaborated in putting 351 points on the scoreboard. The Gades have beaten every team they've faced by 20 points or more.

As part of Los Angeles County's policy of maintaining high standards for skin and SCUBA divers, the County Department of Parks and Recreation will hold its November divers' checkout test on Tuesday, Nov. 21, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., at the Jack Roth Swim School, 9969 Las Tunas Drive, Temple City.

There will be no checkout test during December, so all interested divers are urged by County Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli to participate in the Temple City test if they desire to obtain certificates during the remainder of 1961.

For a $2 registration fee, experienced divers will be given written and practical certification tests on Nov. 21.

CERTIFICATES
All persons who pass the rigid requirements in self-contained underwater breathing apparatus (SCUBA) will be issued official ability certificates by the underwater aquatics sections of the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation.

Other conference games going this week are El Camino at East Los Angeles on Friday, Valley College at Long Beach on Saturday and Harbor College at San Diego on Saturday. All four kick-offs are at 8 p.m.

SCORING DUO—Warrior aces Kurt Altenberg, of Inglewood, and John Torok, of Torrance, constituted a scoring threat for El Camino College against the Harbor College Seahawks in Saturday's Homecoming game. Both graduates of Serra High, their ground gaining ability makes them two of the most valuable men on the Warrior eleven. Torok picked up the second TD Saturday on a quarterback sneak.

Metro Crown on the Line At Next Saturday's Game

The Metropolitan Conference football race, dramatic all season long, reaches its climax Saturday when Santa Monica and Bakersfield, unbeaten titans among the nation's junior colleges, battle at Bakersfield's 16,500-seat Memorial Stadium.

The storybook finish was set up last week when Santa Monica came from behind to smash Long Beach, 30-14, while Bakersfield strong-armed San Diego, 57-0. In other Metro conflicts, East Los Angeles beat Valley College, 28-6, and El Camino blanked Harbor College, 46-0.

El Camino in Topheavy Victory Over Seahawks

El Camino's Warriors clobbered the Harbor College Seahawks Saturday afternoon, 46-0, in a rousing, action-packed finale for annual Homecoming festivities.

Slashing away at the Seahawk's defensive line, the Warriors racked up 12 points in the first quarter, six points in the second, 22 in the third period and another six in the last quarter.

Scoring for El Camino were Fitzgerald on a recovered fumble, Torok on a quarterback sneak, Hearne on a line plunge, Allison on a line plunge, Steinbeck, end run, Thagard on a 54-yard punt return, Taylor on a 42-yard pass interception return. Points after touchdown were picked up by Pier on a run and Andrews on a pass from Riley.

263 YARDS
A total of 263 yards rushing and 156 yards passing brought the El Camino rolling offense a total of 419 yards.

Twenty-two first downs were picked up by the El Camino eleven in an aggressive drive that never let up.

Harbor's vain attempts at cracking the Warrior defensive line were stopped cold as the Seahawks were held to just 91 yards advance.

The challengers managed to work their way into El Camino territory only twice during the session.

First touchdown of the afternoon came in the first quarter when Tom Fitzgerald, Warrior tackle, recovered a fumble of teammate Jim Allison in the Harbor endzone.

Allison made up for the almost-lost score, however, in the third period when he smashed through the Seahawk defense for the first score of the quarter.

Cycle Rivalry Renewed Sunday At Saugus Meet

Dick Dorresteyn of San Pablo and Dick Hammer of Lakewood renew their north vs. south motorcycle TT rivalry in an AMA sanctioned steeplechase at Saugus Stadium Sunday afternoon, Nov. 19.

Matinee pro racing starts at 2:30 p.m., under the direction of J. C. Agajanian, with morning scrambles at 9:30 a.m. One admission price prevails for the doubleheader.

Saugus Stadium, with a specially designed TT course utilizing both the paved oval and the dirt infield, with a hair-raising jump tossed in, is located three miles north of Newhall, off Highway 6.

In two steeplechases conducted by Agajanian at Saugus, Hammer and Dorresteyn broke even. Dorresteyn won the opener, under the lights in September, with Hammer coming back in the first daylight event Oct. 8.

ASCOT WIN
Dorresteyn won Sunday, Nov. 5, around Ascot's twist and turn course to give him a 7-6 edge in 13 1961 races over his Southland foe, Hammer, however, holds a 104 point margin over Dorresteyn in official standings.

Other expert class riders along with the co-favorites for Sunday at Saugus include Jack O'Brien, Santa Monica; Clark White, Bakersfield; Dave Boston, Daly City; Jack Simmons, Artesia; Jim Goldsmith, Long Beach, and Chuck Minert, Whittier.

There will be no checkout test during December, so all interested divers are urged by County Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli to participate in the Temple City test if they desire to obtain certificates during the remainder of 1961.
