

Clubs to Present Annual Yuletide, Handicraft Displays

FELT EVERYWHERE in these stockings and other items made by Mmes. Raymond Sydenstricker, Roger Ormand, Richard Champion and Albert Lawn. The members of the group have been working several months on articles to be sold at their luncheon and bazaar Dec. 2 at Redondo Beach Elk's Club. Press Photo

Victor Women to Welcome Christmas at Dec. 2 Bazaar

A tree full of arts and crafts will appear at the Victor Woman's Club Christmas luncheon and bazaar Dec. 2. The event, sponsored by the arts and crafts group of the club, will begin at noon in the Redondo Beach Elk's Club. Chinese food will be served at the luncheon. Informal modeling of at-home clothes from Gal's will be held during the luncheon.

Articles for the bazaar have been prepared by club members under direction of Mrs. Lee Dawson. Assisting has been Mrs. John Doering. Mmes. Frank McDonald and Ted Blank are in charge of ticket sales. Others working include: Mmes. Raymond Sydenstricker, Roger Ormand, Richard Champion and Albert Lawn. Information regarding the event may be had by calling Frontier 1-5908.

A GLAMOROUS DECOR will be achieved with these decorations being made by members of Victor Woman's Club for their bazaar. Mrs. Lee Dawson holds up an ornament, while Mmes. Raymond Sydenstricker, Ted Blank, Roger Ormand, and Richard Champion (left to right) admire. Press Photo

REFLECTIONS of gowns from House of Chanvictor will be shown Wednesday evening when Torrance Juniors, including Mmes. T. J. Burchfield (left) and Robert Vroman, model clothes during the club's handicraft show. Press Photo

Club to Sell Decorations, Baked Goods

Torrance Woman's Club annual Bazaar will be held Dec. 7 at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia.

Doors will open at 10 a.m. Christmas decorations and gifts made by the members will be offered for sale. Baked goods, surprise booth and home baked fruit cake will also be featured.

A special attraction will be oil paintings created by club member, Mrs. D. G. DeHoog. These will also be on sale.

Luncheon will be served to the public from 11:30 until 1 p.m. Coffee and dessert will be available all day.

Members of the committee working on the bazaar are: Mmes. F. M. Shaw and H. E. Barbey, chairman and co-chairman.

Mmes. L. W. Ballard, J. G. Laird, E. C. St. Amand, and C. L. Porter, gifts and decorations.

Mmes. Rufus Sandstrom, baked goods; Dean Sears, aprons.

COFFEE BREAK — Will be taken during the Juniors' show Monday. Mmes. Clayton Lilley, George Hudok and Jerry Saladin (left to right), will be in attendance and will help with serving during the Handicraft Fair. Many junior clubs from Marina District 18 will participate in the fair at Torrance Woman's Club. Press Photo

Voters' League Meets to Form Two-Year Plans

Studies for 1961-64 will be planned next week by members of the Palos Verdes League of Women Voters.

Members will discuss topics they would like put on the national program.

Mrs. John Crowther, 26801 Rolling Hills Rd., Rolling Hills, will be hostess at a meeting Monday noon. Guests should bring a snack lunch.

A second group will meet Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. R. A. Campbell, 5064 Foxpoint Lane, Rolling Hills Estates.

Mrs. Louis Lanzer will greet other members Tuesday at 8 p.m. at her home, 4229 Paseo de Las Tortugas, Hollywood Riviera.

A fourth unit will meet Wednesday at 9:45 a.m. The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Joseph Rensch, 2433 Via Sonoma, Palos Verdes Estates.

The final unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Richard Huddleston, 27102 Freepoint Rd., Grandview, Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Members have been requested to suggest topics for discussion, as the program is formed according to the wishes of the members.

Topics suggested include disarmament, Russian policies as opposed to our own, the United Nations and consumer protection.

For information regarding the league, those interested may call Mrs. Walter Peterson, FR 5-5737.

Lewis and Harry Mandel. After the luncheon, which will be prepared by a nationally known food company, the company's home economists will demonstrate how their products were used in the preparation of the luncheon menu.

They will also offer tips and suggestions which will enable homemakers to make appetizing and original recipes in the preparation of daily menus.

Questions about luncheon reservations and requests for baby sitting service may be made by calling Mmes. Paul Scheer, FR 5-6219; Robert Eckhouse, FR 5-0228; Harry Mandel, FR 1-3225.

At PV Club . . .

Las Vecinas Holds Kris Kringle Ball

Yuletide celebrations will begin Dec. 2 for Las Vecinas Woman's Club, when the women hold their "Kris Kringle Ball."

The annual dinner dance will be at Palos Verdes Country Club, according to social chairman, Mrs. Frank Carroll.

Festivities will begin at 8 p.m. with a social hour. Dinner will be served at 9 p.m., followed by dancing to Les Tromsler's orchestra.

Mrs. Dick R. White is decorations chairman.

Assisting are Mmes. William F. Clark, Clayton S. Chapen, Carol I. Benson, Gaylord Anderson and Ross Potts.

Members of the committee have planned Christmas decor, which will feature Santa Claus hats with holly greenery on each table.

Mmes. Ray Manashe and Herb Evans are in charge of tickets and reservations.

Fish Society Hears Session On Guppies

Harbor Aquarium Society will meet Friday evening at 8 p.m. in the Recreation Hall at McMasters Park, 174th and Yukon, Torrance.

The program will feature a question and answer session with Alvin McEwen, James Marshall and others to answer questions about your fish, aquariums, fish foods, and other subjects.

The fish of the month for the show table will be Leistes Reticulatus or Guppy. Door prize will be a five gallon aquarium and hood.

A LITTLE ALTERING and Mrs. Vroman will be ready to model this gown that Peggy McNary, store manager, is pinning. The show will begin at 8 p.m. at Torrance Woman's Club. Ladies will also participate in district show Monday. Press Photo

Mosaics, Jewelry, Fashions on Display

A harvest of handmade items will be displayed Monday when Marina District 18, California Federation of Woman's Clubs, Junior Membership, presents its annual Handicraft Fair.

Eleven district clubs will show work done by members. The show will begin at 8 p.m.

Wednesday the Torrance Junior Woman's Club will hold its own fair and fashion show.

Both events will be at the Torrance Woman's Club.

The women will display jewelry, mosaics, needle work and ceramics, to name just a few items.

Judging Displays

Displays will be judged and prizes awarded on the basis of originality, workmanship, variety of display and manner of presentation.

Decorations will be in a harvest atmosphere, with fruit, dried corn, gourds, nuts and scarecrows on the serving table.

Mrs. Edward Felkel, Torrance Junior handicraft chairman, will be assisted by Mmes. Robert Vroman, Jerry Saladin, Joseph Boulan, Kenneth Boulter, Richard Dorothy and Ronald Forestal.

Mmes. William Faulds, Fred Smith and Kenneth Boulter will greet guests at the door.

Fashion Show

The local unit's show will include a fashion show, with members modeling gowns from the House of Chanvictor.

The event will also begin at 8 p.m.

Groups participating in the district show include: El Segundo, Hawthorne, Hollywood, Inglewood, Lawndale, Monday Eves.

Manhattan Beach Dolphins, Pacific Palisades, Redondo Beach Dianas, Santa Monica Bay, Westloy and Torrance.

Calvary Service

Rev. Vincent Irwin, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, 23601 S. Main St., North Wilmington, has announced that the church will hold its annual Thanksgiving Day service at 11 a.m.

Blue Chips Gain Entrance to Temple Lunch

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will hold a "Blue Chip" luncheon Monday noon in the temple's Community Hall, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Robert Eckhouse, Sisterhood president, said the luncheon is open to the public as well as to Sisterhood members.

Admission to the affair is one filled Blue Chip stamp book.

Object of the luncheon is to collect enough Blue Chip stamp books to procure a major appliance for the new temple kitchen.

Luncheon arrangements are being made by Mmes. Jackson Belford and Mark Bennett, co-chairmen of Sisterhood's House and Kitchen Committee.

This committee has as its goal the equipping of the temple kitchen, which will eventually be capable of preparing food for 350 people.

Other committee members are Mmes. Lee Solomon, Robert Eckhouse, George L.