ELDER JOHN LONGDEN ... in Torrance

Elder Longden To Speak at Torrance Stake

Elder John Longden, an assistant to the Council of Twelve Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) in Salt Lake City, will be the featured speaker Saturday and Sunday during a quarterly conference of the church's Torrance Stake.

Conducting the conference will be Stake President Roland E. Gagon, 4 Cerrito Pl., Rolling Hills Estates.

Sunday's general sessions, to which the public is invited, will be held at 9:30 a.m. and 2 p.m., in the Torrance Stake Center.

Elder Longden was manager of an electrical supply company, and a Red Cross and Community Chest official when he was appointed to his church position in 1951.

A native of England, he had served the church as a missionary and regional leader.

Saturday evening, special leadership and missionary meetings will be held.

Baptists Collect Stamps to Buy Choir Robes

"Stamps for choir robes" is the current slogan at the Western Avenue Baptist Church.

The Music Committee and church officers have begun the campaign to replace old, faded robes. Loose stamps as well as books may be dropped in a box at the church.

Maynard Meader, music director, announces that in December the choir will participate in the annual program at Disneyland.

The special program of Christmas music will be presented Dec. 17 by the choir.

The Rev. Charles T. Hughes Jr., pastor, is currently bringing two sermon series to the church services.

The morning series "This I Believe," deals with such Bible doctrines as God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Bible, the New Birth, Heaven, and Hell.

In the evening at 7 p.m. the series title is, "The Second Coming of Christ."

Towne PTA Learns About Art in School

"The Art Program in Elementary Schools" was topic for the November PTA meeting of Towne Avenue School.

Mrs. L. E. Bartlett, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Heath, art supervisor, Los Angeles Board of Education.

Mrs. Heath discussed the different phases of painting, from the kindergarten through sixth grade.

Mrs. Curtis Dunn, president, introduced the new school nurse, Miss Bernice Moore, and Dr. VanDyke.

Mrs. Robert Bicknell, ways and means chairman, reported on the recent festival.

Lee Griffith, principal, greeted the group and explained the Civil Defense program for school children.

Coffee and donuts were served during the meeting by the third grade room mothers.

Witnesses Set Date, Plans for Bible Seminar

Jehovah's Witnesses of the Torrance Congregation are preparing for participation in the three day Bible seminar to be held at Washington High School auditorium, 108 and Denker St., Los Angeles.

Seminar will be Dec. 15 to 17.

In anticipation of the semi-annual event, L. E. Olliff, presiding minister, announced Sunday, "the information presented during this program in our community."

"The teaching aid of the Ministry School has been demonstrated in congregations all over the world. All portions will be cancelled for the assembly week and the information presented during the model school program at Washington High School," Olliff said.

The seemingly unanswerable riddle of unity because of the perplexity of world conditions will be discussed Sunday at 3 p.m. by Theodore Jaracz, district supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Theme of his talk will be "Uniting Men in a Split-up World."

Mothers' Club To Hear Civil Defense Talk

Members of Serra High School Mothers Club will join with the men's Boosters Club in the school auditorium, 14830 South Van Ness Avenue, Gardena, at 8 p.m. Monday to hear a talk by Mrs. Helen Naslund of the Office of Civil Defense.

According to Mrs. Jack Williams program chairman, Mrs. Naslund will supplement her comments by showing a movie "Civil Defense in Schools."

She will conduct a question and answer period, in order to cover as completely as possible the plans for protecting students and teachers in the event of a daytime attack.

Following the combined program sessions, a regular meeting will be held in the school cafeteria, at which time plans will be outlined for the various Christmas season events under sponsorship of the Mothers Club.

Presbyterians Have Worship Thanksgiving

A special service of Thanksgiving will be held at First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd., from 10 to 11 a.m.

Sunday worship services are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. every Sunday with nursery care provided. Dr. R. Murray Jones has chosen "On to Maturity" as his sermon topic.

Reception of new members will be held during the 11 a.m. service.

The Every Member Canvass Committee, under leadership of Wayne Pearson and Art Svee, will conduct their canvass Sunday afternoon, calling on those members who have not returned their pledge for 1962.

A luncheon will be served the canvassers by the UPW.

Gamma Psi Plans Rushee Induction

Gamma Psi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, met at the home of President Christine Walker, 19017 Leapwood, Gardena, to plan installation of the rushees.

Rushees are Mmes. Harold Beltzell, of Los Angeles and George Desplanck of Torrance.

The Intallation will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Russell Seyb, in Hawthorne.

A Christmas party will be the group's next event. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Becker of Torrance.

Due to the Holiday the next educational meeting will be held the fourth Tuesday in January.

Mrs. Joe Premaux will be hostess and Mrs. Don Jodrey of Hawthorne will be co-hostess.

France will be the country for the month.
