Chilton, owner-manager of the new Hammond Organ Studio; Herbert M. Lane, studio organist; Robert P. Stobel, studio activities coordinator; Bettie Kameyer, of Bettie Thomas Studios; Clarence Clark of the Bank of America, and David Cunningham, Hammond Organ Company representative.

Y-Teen News

By CINDY WICKER
Hi! Well I'm back again with all the latest news of the Y and Y clubs. The Y has started several new classes. Just for Girls . . . Do you feel there is something missing in your life? Then join a Y club! It's for all high school girls. They're fun—you have fellowship, they're friendly, teaches you leadership, and they have service projects. They are for all races and religions. Membership required only.
There is a new Y-teen club for young married wives, from ages 15 through 19. Special club activities, program and lots of fun. Call the Y for information.
What's Under Your Hood? Are you interested in auto mechanics? Then here's an opportunity to work on a car. Learn what makes a car operate. Classes are being taught by Don Lackey, a service station owner on Carson, classes are limited so don't miss out, enroll now! Membership required. Wednesdays at 7 to 9 p.m. Ten lessons for only $10.
Like to join a co-ed club? It's for all sophomore girls and boys. (This means South High, North High and Torrance High). It's lots of fun, there's outings, your own dances (club members only), organize your own council, and plan your own activities. Register at the YWCA.

The weekly Saturday night dance is being sponsored by the Athena's a club from North High. Tickets are now for sale at the Y for 50 cents. The time is 8 to 11 p.m., Saturday the 27th. School dress is required.
The Jr. Deltas are now selling delicious donuts for only 50 cents a dozen. It's really neat, too, because you buy a ticket, then you can go to Winchels any time after buying one and get any kind you want. Pretty good, huh? So if you see a girl selling tickets for donuts and she has on a blue sweat-shirt with Delta's 65 on the back, buy some, ok?
Well, I guess this is about all for this Wednesday, so until next Wednesday, so long and oh, yeah, I almost forgot, rts of ruck on your final exams! ! !

P.S. for any information on the above classes phone the YWCA Mondays through Fridays 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at FA 0-2255.
EARLY PRINTING
Much of the early printing was for the church. Missionaries introduced the printing presses to the Philippines, Peru, Guatemala, and Java.
COLORS
The first book printed in colors was produced by Johann Fust and Peter Schoeffer in 1457.

Fireladies Plans Discussed at Monthly Meeting

The Torrance Fireladies held their monthly meeting recently at the home of Mrs. John Spaan, 2529 Dalemead St., Torrance.
A report on the Installation luncheon which was held in November was given by Mrs. Ronald Power. She reported that four state officers were present as well as three guests.
Mrs. James Wass, ways and means chairman, reported that a past president's tea is being planned for February and a Valentine theme will be used. Also discussed were plans for a kidnap breakfast which will be held next month. A hospitality basket was started and a report will be given on the results at the next meeting.
