

MRS. JESSE A. GREEN
... Recent Bride

Photo by Photo Arts

Father of the Bride Officiates At Evening Candelight Ceremony

Miss Marie Shore, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Vernon L. Shore, 1508 W. Anaheim, Harbor City became the bride of Jesse A. Green recently in a candlelight ceremony at the Keystone Baptist Church.

Rev. Shore, father of the bride and pastor of the Keystone Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring exchange.

The bride wore a gown of white taffeta appliqued with chantilly lace. A sabrina neckline and lace sleeves which tapered to a point over the wrist enhanced the bodice, while layers of taffeta and lace made up the bouffant skirt which cascaded into a chapel length train. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a halo of pearls.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Shirley Evenson and bridesmaids Misses Linda Mills, Isabel Argueta and Mrs. Jean Ann Autry wore gowns of royal blue peau de soie and carried bouquets of white carnations. Little Brenda Autry, also gowned in royal blue peau de soie, was the flower girl. Faye and Kaye Cooper were chosen as candlelighters. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Mary Green of Bowie, Texas, was attended by Howard E. Bales, best man.

FRIENDLY GROUP

Gathering eight friends for a prime rib dinner at the Pen & Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach recently were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Petschek of Torrance, who entertained in celebration of Mrs. Petschek's birthday anniversary.

'Hearts and Flowers' Theme Of Auxiliary Valentine Ball

The eleventh annual Valentine Ball of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary has as its theme "Hearts and Flowers." Mrs. Ben Smith will be serving as general chairman of the event.

Ball is to be held in the International Ballroom of the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach on Feb. 10. A social hour will start at 7 p.m., and dinner will be served at 8 p.m. Dancing to the music of Keith Williams and his orchestra will continue until 1 a.m.

Champagne, donated by Western Air Lines, will be given as door prizes during the evening, as well as treasure chests of $200, $100, and $50.

All proceeds from this ball will be used to purchase equipment for the new pediatric wing of the Torrance Memorial Hospital, according to Mrs. Paul Winn, auxiliary president.

Reservations for this affair should be placed immediately with Mrs. Robert Sleeth, FR 5-3250.

Women

Sheri Salmon ... Woman's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Orientation Meeting For Women Voters

On Jan. 31, the Palos Verdes Peninsula League of Women Voters will hold a coffee meeting from 9:45 to 11:30 in the morning to help orient new and prospective members.

Mrs. Norman Peterson, 30636 Palos Verdes Dr. East, Miraleste, is the hostess for this event and Mrs. Ross Chiles is the speaker whose topic will be "Know Your League."

The League offers a bargain to anyone joining the organization at this time. The annual dues, which usually cover one year, will cover a 14 month period—not expiring until April 1, 1963.

All women of voting age are eligible to join and the league offers associate membership to women who are not citizens, girls under 21 and men who are interested in league objectives.

Anyone who plans to attend the coffee or who wishes more information about joining the League of Women Voters may contact membership chairman, Mrs. Walter Peterson, at FR 5-5737.

Fashion Show At El Camino

Faculty wives of El Camino College will present Lucille Rose Fashions at their annual fashion show Thursday, Feb. 15, at 8 p.m. in the Campus Center.

Held as a fund raising enterprise for the Eva Murdock scholarship, the show is open to the public and tickets may be purchased from members of Faculty Wives.

The Eva Murdock Scholarship, named in honor of the wife of former El Camino President Forrest G. Murdock, is awarded to students planning work in the teaching profession.

Mrs. Joy Karr, a past-president of Faculty Wives Serves as chairman of the fashion committee.

Henderson-Weston Vows Exchanged In Picturesque Evening Ceremony

Baskets of white flowers and an altar lit by candlelight provided a picturesque setting for the double ring ceremony uniting Janet Eileen Henderson to James Edward Weston. The wedding took place at 7:30 p.m.

Feb. Wedding Scheduled for Theresa E. Vita

THERESA E. VITA
... Names Date

Mr. and Mrs. Norman V. Koch, 17204 Eastwood, announce the engagement of their daughter, Theresa E. Vita to Laurence S. Lieberman of Van Nuys.

Wedding is scheduled to take place February 14 of this year at three o'clock in the afternoon in the YWCA building.

Bride-to-be is a graduate of South High School in Torrance. The prospective groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nate Lieberman, 17154 Larne, Van Nuys, is an employee of Arco Electronics in Van Nuys.

in the Wayfarer's chapel, Portuguese Bend, on Saturday, Jan. 6.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Henderson, 24111 Fulmar Ave., Lomita, was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white peau de soie appliqued with chantilly lace, sequins and pearls, the full skirt falling into a chapel train.

See Miss Henderson was preceded to the altar by Matron of honor, Mrs. Joanne Robinson. Her cousin, Miss Marilyn Schaar served as bridesmaid. Both wore street length sheath dresses of blue and white brocade and carried pink carnation bouquets. In a dress of pink organza, Miss Mary Sullivan, flower girl, tossed rose petals from a dainty basket.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Weston, 2586 E. 219th St., Long Beach chose Phillip Costa as best man. Kenny Preder and Melvin Henderson were ushers. Rings were carried by Bobby Weston.

Following a reception at the Torrance Elks Lodge, the couple spent their honeymoon on Catalina Island.

The new Mrs. Weston was graduated from Torrance High School and is employed by the Long Beach Bureau of Adoption. Her husband, a graduate of Poly High School in Long Beach, is an employee of Hodges Mayflower. They are now residing at 1357 Elm Ave., Apt. 1, in Long Beach.

NEE JANET HENDERSON
... Exchanges Vows

Photo by Crotty

Dianas Luncheon Program to Include Vogue Contestants

The Redondo Beach Dianas January board meeting was held this month at the home of Mrs. Robert Campbell in Torrance. Mrs. Paul Taylor, president, introduced guest co-ordinators, Mmes. Charles Bougamont and Don Beard.

Mrs. John Hansford, vice president, announced that a luncheon will be held at the Redondo Beach Women's Club on Saturday, Feb. 17, where Dianas will entertain their mothers and seniors.

The menu will include sweet and sour pork on rice, spiced peaches, banana bread, dessert, coffee or tea.

The program planned for the afternoon is Sunye Richards and her lectures on "Women of the Bible." Mrs. Richards paints portraits of people resembling Biblical characters, and her art reproductions have been circulated throughout the world.

SEWING CONTEST
The program will also feature contestants for the Vogue sewing contest, modeling their home-sewn garments.

A Casino party is being planned for Saturday Feb. 10, 8 p.m. at Higgins Brickyard. Dips, sandwiches and snacks will be served, while many party games and dancing will round out the evening of entertainment.

Mrs. Robert McKinney, Diana and owner of "The Gilded Cage" crafts studio in Waleria, will present a crafts demonstration for Diana members during their next business meeting on Monday evening, Feb. 5, at the Redondo Beach clubhouse.

Torrance Winner Of 'Homemaker' Contest Named

Joann Portlock, senior student at Torrance High School, was announced as winner of the Betty Crocker "Homemaker of Tomorrow" title for 1962. Miss Portlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Portlock, received the highest score on a written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by senior girls in December. She becomes eligible now along with winners in other state high schools, for the title of State Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The girl named State Homemaker of Tomorrow is provided a $1,500 scholarship by General Mills, sponsor of the program. The state runner-up will receive a $500 scholarship.

Valentine's Eve Dance Held by Women's Group

The Torrance Little League Women's Auxiliary are holding a Valentine Dance Saturday, Feb. 10 at 8 p.m. It will be held in the Manhattan Beach Homeowner's Hall, 1560 Manhattan Beach Blvd. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Junior Charm is Taught to Young Girls at YWCA

A junior charm course for girls in the 8th, 9th, 10th grades is being offered by the Torrance YWCA. The program will consist of posture, hair, skin, and make-up care, personal cleanliness, clothes, and social grace. The class will start Jan. 29 at 4 p.m.

The girls will be instructed in all phases of beauty by experts who will help them bring out their best features and enhance their natural charm. Naturalness is the thing that is being stressed in spring fashions.

For further information call the Torrance YWCA, FA 0-2255. The YWCA is located at 2320 W. Carson St., Torrance.

Practice Songs, Refreshments

Bethel 36 of the International Order of Job's Daughters held a choir practice on Wednesday, Jan. 17, at the home of Kathy Sharp. The girls practiced the songs that they would sing for the official visit of Mrs. Ruby Jump, deputy grand guardian of the State of California.

After the practice, refreshments were served by Linda Livings, Junior Princess, and her committee.

Palos Verdes Christian Women Formulate Plans

The newly installed president of the Palos Verdes Christian Women's Club, Mrs. Albert Baxter, invited her executive committee to her home Wednesday at 26920 Indian Peak Rd. for its first meeting of the year.

After a social coffee hour, Mrs. Baxter introduced a "Prayer Circle" by providing the committee members with slips of paper naming some of the rural missions sponsored by the club. Each slip of paper included brief descriptions of the location in rural USA, and requests for prayer by each of these dedicated people.

By proceeding around the room in prayer, the group was soon well aware of the scope of christian work being conducted through the assistance of their Palos Verdes chapter of Christian Women's Clubs of America.

During the executive committee meeting, plans for the year were formulated. The schedule for monthly luncheon meetings will remain same, being set for noon on second Tuesday of each month at the Fish Shanty.

CONSULTING CALENDAR for forthcoming events are, left to right, Mmes. Albert Baxter, I. E. Hamlin, George Spirk Jr., and Leslie A. Hromas of the Palos Verdes Christian Women's Club, which installed new officers recently at Mrs. Baxter's residence, 26920 Indian Peak Rd. Regular meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month at Smith's Fish Shanty in Waleria.

(Press Photo)

PRETTY — A sewing contest is underway and Redondo Beach Dianas Mmes. John Hansford, Harry Ebinger, Charles Bougamont and Jack

Williams are busily preparing home-sewn garments to be ready for the Feb. 17 luncheon at the Redondo Beach Women's Club. (Press Photo)