'Swinging High' Comedy Variety Week Feature

Twenty-three North High students have been selected for the cast of "Swinging High," a musical comedy to be featured Feb. 28 to March 3 during the annual Junior Class Variety Five week.

Variety Five week is a week of fund raising activities which are held to help finance the Junior-Senior Prom.

The story of "Swinging High" centers around the campus life of a high school which is threatened with extinction after a new principal arrives with his philosophy of assembly line teaching to produce mathematicians and scientists.

The students naturally dislike this new method of teaching, and they scheme to bring about a change.

"Swinging High" will be presented to the public at 7 p.m. in the North High cafeteria. The admission price will be announced in the near future.

Investment Banking Firm Adds Former Torrance Man to Staff

Crowell, Weedon & Co., 30-year-old investment banking firm, announces that Torrance native, James F. Woodburn, has joined the staff of its Los Angeles headquarters office, 629 So. Spring St., as a registered representative.

Woodburn, along with seven others added to the staff in this capacity, has just completed the first fifteen weeks of a specialized six-month course in stock brokerage conducted by the firm and designed to thoroughly indoctrinate the participant in all phases of the investment business, states Edwin E. Morgan, Crowell, Weedon's partner in charge of training. The course includes both classroom and in-the-field studies.

Woodburn, received his education at Long Beach City College, Long Beach State, and Pepperdine College. He was a teacher in the Los Angeles school system for several years, and served in the Air Force during World War II.

He and his wife and three children live at 26312 Rowwood Dr., Rolling Hills, where they are affiliated with the Baptist Church.

Besides their Los Angeles headquarters, Crowell, Weedon & Co. have offices in Corona del Mar, Covina, Laguna Beach, Long Beach, Pasadena and Van Nuys.

'Art of Dress' Being Taught to Torrance Women

A weekly visitor to this area beginning Feb. 7 will be Mrs. Louise Pinckney Sooy, UCLA Professor of Art Emeritus and a perennially popular university extension lecturer, who speaks with equal authority in the field of fashion or home decoration.

For local women she will give a series of university extension lectures on "The Art of Dress." Fifteen weekly meetings of her 4:30 to 6:30 class will meet in Room 302, North High School, 3620 W. 182nd St., Torrance.

For many years in her capacity of first associate, then Professor of Fine Arts on the UCLA campus, Mrs. Sooy advised succeeding college generations of young women concerning the manifold problems of interior decoration and costume design.

AUTHOR
With Mrs. Virginia Woodbridge, another member of the University's Fine Arts faculty, she is the author of a notable volume on interior decoration called "Plan Your Own Home." She is also the author of an authoritative volume on the history of costume and has written numerous articles on fashion for women.

"Know thyself," the ancient Socratic advice, is one of the best beauty hints a woman can observe, believes Mrs. Sooy.

"Today every type of beauty aid comes in pots or bottles or packages, but no cosmetician has been able to bottle up the wisdom which women need to use this vast wealth of products.

LITTLE SCANDALS

Columnist George Sokolsky writes: "Considering the serious problems that face the President and the secretary of state, neither should be burdened with the little scandals that arise out of the maneuvers of lower officials to manipulate policy by day by day ction. It is natural for insecure men to seek power and to grow upon it, but the country ought not to be burdened by such trivialities which grow into nuisances. The only way to safeguard the United States from such situations is to form policy at the very top and to insist that all secondary officials conform to major decisions; that those in secondary offices who are by doctrine or emotions incapable of conforming to top decisions be summarily dismissed. . . ."
