Victor Woman's Club Planning Another Successful Club Year

On Monday, March 5, an installation dinner will start a new club year for the Victor Woman's Club. After the 8 o'clock dinner, a candle-light installation will be conducted by Mrs. S. V. Kulp as installing officer.

The newly elected president is Mrs. Donald W. Walker. Others serving with her are: Mrs. W. A. Pollock, first vice president; Mrs. John Galvin, second vice president; Mrs. James Bruno, third vice president; Mrs. Ivar Lundeen, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Champion, secretary; Mrs. William A. Reed, reporter; and Mrs. Don Porter, auditor.

NEWCOMER

The Victor Woman's Club is a newcomer to the South Bay area. The organization was sparked by Mrs. John Galvin, the outgoing president. The club began with ten women residents of the Victor Tract, and now claims a membership of almost 90. Meetings are held School once a month. Membership is limited to Women residents of the Victor Tract. Women who are interested are invited to contact the new membership chairman, Mrs. James Bruno at FR 1-3755.

Civically and socially, club members have had an active year. They petitioned the city of Torrance to expedite the development of the Victor Park site. They were successful in their request for stop signs at Henrietta and Edgemere. Contributions to the Parks and Recreation Commission for trees at the park and a check for needy families are listed among their philanthropic activities.

Sponsoring an evening coffee for school board candidates, they endeavored to keep their residents informed. A highly successful mother-daughter fashion show was given and also a Christmas luncheon and bazaar was presented as ways and means projects.

COUPLES GROUP

Popular with the club is a couples group, composed of husbands and wives. A few of their happy memories from the past year was pool parties, a beatnik gathering and a luau. Other activities within the club are arts and crafts, bowling, bridge and volleyball.

Past Presidents Introduced at Harbor PTA Meet

Harbor City PTA Founders Day program honored past presidents with a luncheon and presented each one with a valentine corsage. Mrs. Lawrence Barton, founders day chairman, talked on the history of founders day then introduced each past president with a synopsis of her year in office.

Presidents presented were: Mmes. Arthur Aspittle, Lulu Higgs, Hattie Schroeder, John Schields, E. R. Walker, William Tregarthen, George Weeks, Ray Groover, Leland Van Buren, James Alexander, Michael Travers, John Blencowe and Stephen Silkotch.

Mrs. Robert Alexander read a poem about the merits and services of the honoree of the life membership pin then presented Mrs. Lloyd Hampton with her award.

Teacher Edith Woodruff received a baby gift.

Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, back from sabbatical leave talked about her happy experiences while away but glad to get back to America and her busy schedule.

Susan Phippen's room won the prize and Mrs. E. R. Walker was awarded a plant for the PTA member of the month.

Edwin Cambra, first vice-president; James O'Brien, treasurer; and George Witz, chairman of costume projects. The dance and buffet supper will be held Saturday, March 3, at the Nativity parish auditorium. (Press Photo)

'That Continental Flare' Is Theme of Plush Fashion Show

Torrance members of Las Damas de Lasuen, including Mrs. Frank Gompert, are anticipating a gala afternoon when they attend the fashion luncheon March 3 in the Royal Room of the Plush Horse Inn hosted by the organization.

"That Continental Flair" will combine the alluring fashions of G. Montalban; the music of Joe Moshay; the appearance of a celebrity entertainer, and a hot luncheon, which will begin with Princess salad, include entree, rolls, vegetable, beverage and conclude with the inn's own famous pastry.

Response to the fete, said Mrs. Henry J. Smith, president, has not only clearly indicated the style-consciousness of harbor-peninsula women, but also their warm hearted support of the cultural aims of Las Damas de Lasuen in supplying the costly volumes for Fernin Lasuen High School library through which it will become an invaluable reference source for generations of students.

FASHIONS
Mrs. Montalban's collection of high fashion has been assembled in Italy with many designs from Roman sources exclusive with her, from Hong Kong, Mexico, the Philippines and from top American houses. Casual wear including Si-monetta originals, afternoon, and five and later costumes in cottons, pure silks, knits, laces and shantungs will be shown by Mrs. Montalban's professional models. Joe Mo-shay and his trio will provide the lilting melodies for this premier showing of Mrs. Montalban's spring and summer fashions.

Mrs. Smith will head the receiving line with Mrs. Jackson Pearson, immediate past president of Las Damas, and Mrs. Francis J. Henry, Rolling Hills, general chairman.

Mrs. Robert Rados, award chairman, announced today that an imported Italian handbag jingling with silver dollars will be presented to an honoree. To further enhance the gala occasion Mrs. Andrew Svornich, San Pedro, will distribute an array of door prizes following the luncheon and show.

Reservations chairman Mrs. Slavko Frliekin, San Pedro, reminds Torrance women that seating is being arranged in the order in which acceptances are received and the closing date has been set for Mar. 1.

Las Damas de Lasuen members assisting with arrangements for "That Continental Flair" include Mmes. Dominic Comparsi, Miraleste, and Anthony Oat-oirch, San Pedro, decorations; James Meagher, Palos Verdes, Alva Snider, Miraleste, and Frank Gompert, Torrance, awards; and Kenneth Ward Smith, Miraleste, press.

Miss Woodruff Is Bride-Elect, Parents Reveal

PHYLLIS WOODRUFF ... Engaged

The engagement of their daughter Phyllis Dale Woodruff to Edward George Schiller, was announced by Mr. and Mrs. George Woodruff, 18818 Cranbrook Ave., Torrance, recently.

Miss Woodruff is a graduate of North High School and is currently attending El Camino College.

Her fiancé, son of Mrs. Lorella Schiller of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, attended Jefferson Senior High School in Cedar Rapids and is now serving an enlistment in the U.S. Navy, presently stationed at Terminal Island in Long Beach.

"OOH, LA LA!" — Women take a preliminary peek at part of the hot luncheon which will be served to persons attending "That Continental Flair" fashion show being presented March 3, at the Plush Horse Inn, by Las Damas de Lasuen. Delighted with

Evening Rites Unite Pamela Sue Anderson and James Wayne Moody

MRS. JAMES MOODY ... becomes bride

St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Torrance provided the setting last month for an evening ceremony uniting Pamela Sue Anderson and James Wayne Moody. Rev. Hugh R. Percy officiated.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Anderson, 2253 W. 237th St., Torrance, was given in marriage by her father.

Her white lace wedding gown, enhanced by a basque bodice, was of ballerina length. White roses and white orchids combined to make up her bridal bouquet.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Michael Henderson, wearing a street length sheath dress of emerald green satin.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Moody, 2546 Maricopa St., Torrance, chose as his best man, Larry Arrasmith. Ushers were Steve Popparick and Steve Moody.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the bride's home. Mrs. Gary Heliker was in charge of the guest book and the hostesses were Mmes. Jack Oliver, Edward Jolls and Miss Susan Shaw. Both young people graduated from Torrance High School. They are residing in Harbor City.

'Mardi Gras' Costume Ball Held In Nativity Parish Auditorium

Plans are nearing completion for the "Mardi Gras Costume Ball" presented by the Nativity Mothers Club and Nativity Holy Name Society, to be held Saturday, March 3 at the Nativity parish auditorium.

The "Nitecappers" will provide the music which will be interrupted at 10 p.m. for the "Grand March." Dancing will then continue until midnight when a buffet supper will be served. There will be prizes for various outstanding costumes, with Mrs. George Witz acting as prize chairman.

CO-CHAIRMAN

Serving as co-chairmen are Mrs. James Carlin and Mr. William Fredericks. The various committees are headed by Mrs. James O'Brien and Mr. Charles Buchan, reservations; Mr. Norris Carstenson, Joseph Basile, Dick Olson and Edward Cutcher, refreshments; Mmes. James Carlin, Dick Olson, Donald Bryant, Richard Thompson, James Fornelli, and Robert Klaesgos, decorations; Joseph Platt and Frank Kristufek, publicity.

Reservations will be accepted through noon, Monday, Feb. 26.

FASHION SHOW

Fashions for all will be featured in the annual fashion show of the Meadow Park PTA on March 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Fashions will be modeled by children and parents. Clothing will be made by the mothers in the latest fashion, but perhaps the Gay Nineties or the Roaring Twenties will creep in to add variety to the show.

SUMMER CABINS

Starter summer cabins can be built with a little as $450 worth of lumber at West Coast prices, according to lumbermen. For free plans for a vacation cabin write: Vacation Cabin, West Coast Lumbermen's Association, 1410 S.W. Morrison, Portland 5, Oregon.

MAKING READY — Calling for reservations for the Victor Woman's Club installation dinner to be held March 5, is co-chairman Mrs. Norbert Ciesdale. Her fellow members, Mmes. Don Porter, Steward Kulp and

William Reed, are busily preparing decorative candles to be used as table centerpieces for the event. Installation of officers will follow an 8 o'clock dinner. (Press Photo)
