

PLAY PUNCHES — Ron Wright of Torrance is being taught a few fighting techniques by Mary Ann Dernay in a scene from Hampton Players latest production, "Goodbye, Charlie." The comedy, directed by Jack Coyne, will continue its run until March 24.

Leading Role Given Local Resident in Production

A Torrance resident has been assigned one of the leading roles in a Hampton players production.

Ron Wright plays the part of George in the sparkling comedy, "Goodbye Charlie." Theater goes in the South Bay area will remember his excellent performances in many Hampton plays, including "Inherit The Wind," "Great Sebastians," "Dial M for Murder" and others. He has also worked with the Manhattan Players, Hermosa Playhouse and Chapel Theatre.

OPENING SCENE

The opening scene of "Goodbye Charlie" finds George conducting memorial services for his old buddy Charlie, who had been killed by an irate husband while escaping through a porthole. What can one say about Charlie? He was a roue, he made many women fall in love with him but never loved any of them. As a to send Charlie back to earth in the shape of a beautiful woman who falls in love with George, the one person who can never love her because he knows she is really Charlie.

DILEMMA

The dilemma creates some rib-tickling situations, but is finally solved by a twist ending.

Mary Ann Dernay plays the delightful wise-cracking Charlie, with Connie Farrell, Ann Whiting, Hal Piccus, Dieter Wagner and Gerry Billinghamurst in supporting roles.

The comedy, which is directed by Jack Coyne, opened last Friday and will run through March 24. Reservations should be made early by calling FR 5-8018.

El-Camino Swim Squad to Meet Cerritos Friday

Shocking highly-favored Fullerton in their first outing of the season, El Camino College swimmers trek to Cerritos Friday, March 2, for the Southern California Relays.

Although losing to the Powerladden Hornets 44-43, the Warriors surprised Coach Rudy Kroon by taking six first places and generally showing promise for an outstanding season.

Cappy Sheeley led the Warriors against Fullerton, nabbing a pair of first places. Sheeley won the 200-yard fly in 2:15 and came back to win the 200-yard breaststroke in 2:36.4.

Jim Graham captured the 50 and 100-yard freestyle events to tie with Sheeley for high-point honors. Graham clocked a 24.6 for the 50 free and hit 55.5 for the century.

Tom Viren captured the 440-yard freestyle in 5:04 and turned around and swam the individual medley in 2:23, good enough for second place.

A medley squad composed of Morgan, Sheeley, Viren and Graham also notched a first place. Bob Alred added additional points to the War.rior total by grabbing a first place in the diving event.

Warrior Track Team Competes in LB Relays

Track members from El Camino College will compete in the Long Beach Relays, sanctioned by the Southern Pacific Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, on the East Los Angeles College's field and track Saturday, March 3, at 10 a.m.

Track season opened for El Camino, resulting in a decisive victory over Orange Coast cindermen 78½ to 45½. A soggy track from the recent rains hindered top performance.

El Camino spikes swept the 880 yard run, the broad jump and the pole vault events and ran away with the mile relay.

Hot on the heels of another record, Warrior trackster Richard Fernandez covered the two mile run in 9:42 flat, just seconds off the school record.

Other impressive performances by ECC trackmen included Dennis Jett's 24.9 seconds time in the 220 low hurdles, a 22' 2½ board jump by Floyd Schmidt, and Bob Severance's time of 2:01.6 in the 880-yard-run.
