

BEAUTIFUL INTERIOR — Artist's rendition of the interior of the spacious new First Western Bank facility, now under construction near the intersection of Hawthorne and Pacific Coast Hwy., is shown here. Bank, which will feature eight commercial teller's windows, as well as drive up windows, will cover an area of 7458 square feet. Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new building, which will be located directly across Hawthorne from the old facility, were held last week.

Montgomery High Writers Win 'Excellent' Award

Three members of the Bishop Montgomery High School "Excalibur" annual staff were received yesterday into the Quill and Scroll Society, international honor society for high school journalists. Co-Editor-in-Chief Holly Hinkel, Assistant Art Editor Carmela Steed, and Co-Business Manager Michael O'Gara received key-shaped pins and membership cards from Father Joseph Pecarkic, Principal, after being admitted to the society by Bob Healy, acting president.

Members of the Quill and Scroll Society must be of junior or senior classification, in the upper third of their class scholastically, recommended by the publications moderators, and approved by the executive secretary of the society. Most important, they must have done superior work in some phase of journalism or school publications work, such as writing, editing, business management or production, according to Father Paschal and Sister Marie Gerard, chapter moderators.

Letters

Dear Bill:
On March 16, some 200 representatives of neighboring high schools will visit the El Camino College campus for our Ninth Annual Press Day.

One of the featured items of each program is the Writers' Tournament; all student guests participate in one of four divisions. To enable us to present trophies and certificates to winners, we must call upon neighboring newsmen and women to serve as judges each year.

Will you kindly respond at your earliest convenience by calling FAculty 1-1121 or DAVis 4-6631, Ext. 209? Thank you!

Cordially yours,
Bill Kamrath
Coordinator Public Relations.

Dear Sheri Salmon:
We do appreciate your fine publishing of our news and of the response which has been most gratifying.

Thank you, again.
Sincerely,
Mrs. Norman Rickard

Harbor College President Lists Fifty Students on Honor Role

Sixteen full-time Harbor College students and thirty-four part-time students have just been appointed to the President's Honor List for scholastic achievement. President Wendell C. Black said this week.

The President's List is similar to scholastic accomplishment lists at other colleges and universities. In order for the student to be appointed to the Harbor College list, he must have maintained a minimum grade point average of 3.5, or A minus, in work completed during the preceding semester.

The purpose of the list is to give recognition to students who make a significant contribution to the educational program of the college by maintaining records of high scholastic achievement.

Full-time students who won the distinction of making the honor list are Susan Ellen Anderson, John Baumgartner, Linda M. Boddeker, Vicki Lee Burnett, Betty J. Chambers, Bonnie J. DeBra, Gladys Janet Dickinson, Kathleen Colleen Flanagan, Lucille Hill, Bonnie Kremel, Susanna Jane Mukes, Rocky Lamb Nelson, Rosamond Picco, Ralph M. Sias, Lawrence Michael Walsh, and Edna M. Watanabe.

PART TIME
Part-time honor students who completed fewer than 12 units with a grade point average of A minus or better, are Richard Oliver Anderson, Jr., Donald Morris Borne, Everett M. Carroll, Marcia Charline Chamberlain, Christina Schwarz Cochran, Edward James Cooper, Jr., Charles R. Dillon, Eugene Fred Dynarski, Mary Farnsworth Erb, Ruth M. Farrow, Phyllis Louise Hall, Joe Dale Hammons.
Also LaGene J. Herr, Phyllis Hickman Holder, Neal Robert Ierien, George Raymond Lawlor, Richard Loebel, Barbara M. MacLennan, Gary Alten McPeack, Shirley Elaine Miller, Louise L. Neece, Richard Herbert Nelson, Virginia Noyes, David C. Oliver, Ida Oliver, Lucia Marilyn Peterson, Harold Charles Raine, Victor C. Robertson, R. B. Stanton, Richard A. Stoffel, Betty I. Dedication, Flag Raising Planned For New Scout Center Next Sunday

Torrance Scout Center Inc., 2365 Plaza Del Amo, announces the dedication and flag raising ceremony to be held on Sunday, Program will begin at 2 p.m. with a flag parade. Color guards of Girl Scout and Boy Scout troops will participate. They will raise the American flag for the first time on the new flagpole. Invocation will be given by Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman of the First Methodist Church.

W. E. Walton, chairman of Scout Center, Inc. will introduce notables and tell something of the building of the Scout Center. Following the singing of some scout songs by a Girl Scout troop, the guests will be invited to tour the building. Torrance Junior Woman's Club members and Torrance Civitan's will act as hosts.

Brick building consists of a large assembly room with a fire place, a large kitchen and several patrol rooms. A large office will be occupied by the District Girl Scouts. The building faces on to a patio. Showers have been included to enable use by traveling scout troops.

Center will be available for all type of scouting activities, including adult training programs, banquets, meetings, dances and overnights.

SPONSORS
Torrance Scout Center, Inc., now sponsored by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, C.F.W.C. Junior Membership, and the Torrance Civitan Club, was incorporated in 1952. Its purpose was to erect a building for the use of all Boy and Girl Scouts in the area. Membership was composed of representatives of all civic organizations in Torrance.

Cooperation of the whole community was enlisted. Solicitation of all business and industry in Torrance was undertaken by the Junior Woman's Club.

Ground was broken for the building in 1958 on land leased from the city, behind the Y.W.C.A. A great portion of the actual work on the building was volunteer labor of individuals and service clubs in Torrance.

Erection of this center has been an all-out community effort.

All interested persons in Torrance are invited to attend the dedication. Scout members and parents have a special invitation.

GUESTS ENTERTAINED

List Speakers for Isen Testimonial Wednesday

A "blue ribbon" panel of past and present Torrance citizens, and leading figures in the fields of industry, labor, government, religion and services clubs will appear as a part of next Wednesday's testimonial banquet program honoring Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance.

Judge Joe Rayercraft of the Superior Court will appear as the principal speaker at the "non-partisan" civic event to be presented in the Jump 'n Jack Restaurant on Wednesday, March 14, at 8 p.m. Joseph Piatt and Dick Floyd are co-chairmen of the committee of Torrance residents sponsoring the event.

Although the list of speakers is incomplete, and contains some surprise guests, the committee has released a partial list of the Chamber of Commerce; Kenneth Hahn, Los Angeles County Supervisor; Charles Perry Walker, former mayor of Manhattan Beach and past president of the League of California Cities; Bill King, president of the Torrance Lions; Ernie Winters, representing Burton Chase, Los Angeles County Supervisor; Dr. Allen Pyett and Charles Deck, president of the Torrance Property Owners' Association.

The other members of the testimonial dinner committee are Fred Hansen, treasurer; John Fedor, Frank Burk, Herbert Fisher, John Lenton, Jim Greer, Robert Waegner and Arnold White.
