RE-EXAMINED

Drivers who accumulate a record of many accidents or moving traffic violations should automatically be re-examined, says E. R. Klamm, in charge of accident prevention for the Allstate Motor Club. Physical defects and bad habits may then be detected and corrected by medical treatment and driver retraining.

Apache Couple Perform at Civitan Meeting

Torrance Civitans were entertained at their ladies' night meeting recently by Chief Sundown and Princess Snowflower. The Chief and Princess are full blooded Apaches and are local residents. Chief Sundown is a nephew of Geronimo and is originally from the reservation at White River, Arizona while the Princess is from the reservation at San Carlos, Arizona. Both prefer living in California, however, and they have spent over fifteen years on the reservations.

They appear regularly on such television programs as Bonanza, Wagon Train, and Broken Arrow. According to program director A. A. Rauch, the couple showed movies while on location and the Princess and her daughter did an Apache Squaw dance while the Chief accompanied them beating a drum and chanting.

These and many other dances may be seen monthly

GROWTH OF EL CAMINO COLLEGE has been so rapid that plans represented in the wall mosaic completed 10 years ago in the administration building are now out-dated. Additional educational units have already been constructed to accommodate the present enrollment of approximately 11,000 students. Continuing growth will require added facilities for the future.

The Younger Set

Members of Girl Scout Troop 2080 enjoyed a weekend trip to San Diego recently. The group traveled by chartered bus and were guests of the YWCA during their stay in San Diego. Troop visited many points of interest including the zoo and also many historical landmarks.

Proceeds from various fund raising activities sponsored by the scouts and troop mothers made the trip possible.

The traveling group included leaders, Mmes. Ray Bonawitz, Jim Scott and Lee Prichard; and Scouts, Jackie at the Indian Powwows in Los Angeles.

The Chief and his wife drew quite a bit of attention in their full regalia in the Jump 'N Jack where the meeting was held.

Michelle Peerson Honored at Past Honored Queen's Shower

The line officers of Bethel 36 of the International Order of Job's Daughters hosted a past honored queen's shower for Miss Michelle Peerson, junior past honored queen. The shower was held at the home of Joanne Johnston, marshal.

Miss Peerson was presented with gifts by her officers, other friends, and members of her family. The highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of a friendship quilt for which each girl in the Bethel had embroidered a square. The quilt was made by Miss Peerson's junior princess Betsy O'Dell.

Refreshments were served by the line officers and their mothers.

Those attending were

Jane Gustafson, honored queen; Betsy O'Dell, senior princess; Linda Livings, junior princess; Judy Gustafson, guide; and Joanne Johnston, marshal. Others present were Barbara Bader, Kathy Lehman, Kathy Peerson, Donetta Sigg, Margaret Roemisch, Susan Stanley, Kathy Sharp, Candy Pierce, On-Wari Johnston, Elaine Platz, Linda Kapigian, Jan Foyle, Jolene Elliott, Sandy Coleman, Gail St. George, Marie La Fond, Penny Miller, Joanna Varner, and Sheila Denman.

Members of Bethel 36 of the International Order of Job's Daughters were surprised Saturday morning and taken to the home of Jane Gustafson, honored queen for a kidnap breakfast.

After the girls arrived they voted for Miss Night-mare of 1962. The girls then ate breakfast and were returned home.
