The Younger Set

A new Brownie Troop, No. 1423, sponsored by Hickory Elementary PTA, has been started under the leadership of Mrs. Arline Stiles and assistant leaders Mrs. Joyce Parana and Mrs. Eleanor Schubert.

On January 18, the following twelve girls were invested at Hickory School: Nancy Brewer, Patty Brown, Susan Curtis, Renee Droubay, Cathy Gifford, Mikelle Hatch, Christine Houston, Debra Mondschlein, Kim Parana, Diane Schubert, Lynn Sebek, and Christie Stiles.

Following the investiture and program, the new brownies served their parents refreshments which they had made themselves. The troop enjoyed its first outing, a hike to Torrance Park, on March 31, during which two more girls, Sue Linberg and Peggy McCormick were invested. As a Brownie troop, the girls are also taking weekly lessons in tap and ballet at A Jay School of Dance.

Hot pancakes by the dozens were served at a recent al fresco-style breakfast honoring Linda Kennedy, Senior Girl Scout of Torrance Troop 1277.

Miss Kennedy has been selected to be a delegate to the tri-annual International Girl Scout Round-up to be held this year at Button Bay, Vermont, for two weeks in July.

About one-third of her expenses will be paid for from the proceeds of the pancake breakfast. It was a fund-raising effort supported by all the Brownie and Girl Scout troops of the BIGGS Neighborhood. This is the first year that neighborhood will have sent a delegate to the round-up.

The honoree's own troop, under the leadership of Mrs. Allen Beresford, pledged to earn one-hundred dollars additionally for the round-up fund.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kennedy, 17524 Falda St., Linda is a North High School junior and is in the scholarship society.

One of 102 senior scouts chosen from the entire Los Angeles Girl Scout Council to attend the round-up, Linda had to prove herself superior in competitive examinations. Among them was a test of resourcefulness in the wilderness. Other Scouting skills were demanded, as well as poise, enthusiasm, charm—all ideal Girl Scout qualities.

Location for the breakfast was the garden of the Ray Bonowitz family. Pancake batter and other items were donated by local merchants. The food was prepared by the various troop leaders assisted by Linda's sister-Scouts.

Exciting Fashion News for Coming Easter Parade

Something new will be seen in the Easter Parade this year—new, exciting and definitely different in spring fashions.

Fashions has undergone a major change this season. We've said goodbye to the strict and stringent look that was here so long—the undeviatingly simple, unadorned "little nothing" clothes which seemed as if they would be the thing forever.

Arriving now is a softer, more shapely shape, a romantic look that revels in such feminine wiles as ruffles and laces and ribbons and fringe.

Welcome spring fashions! Welcome to the fashion changes which are bringing back a romantic mood and making all-woman women the women of fashion.
