

Young Dancers Will Present 'Cinderella'

"Cinderella," with Prokofiev's beautiful music, and the eternal magic of a fairytale coming to life, will be presented Saturday, May 4, at the Redondo Union High School auditorium.

Dancers in the ballet have rehearsed with two professional dancers—Guy Stambaugh, as the "Prince of Cinderella's dreams, and Tony Savino as the Dance-Master and jester.

Stambaugh, a dancer and teacher of international reputation, comes from Mexico and the Republic of El Salvador where he held the official title of professor of classical ballet and choreographer for the national ballets of both countries. Prior to that he toured North and South America as the partner of prima ballerina, Mia Slavenska.

Stambaugh has also appeared in many of the great opera houses in Europe as a leading dancer with the original Ballet Russe. He started his dancing career with the Metropolitan Opera in New York, and was last seen on Broadway as a featured dancer in Agnes De-
