

EXCHANGE GAVEL — Presidential honors for the 223rd Street School PTA are exchanged by Mrs. Ralph Robertson and Mrs. Hal Burgener, new president. Installation ceremonies took place May 8 in the school auditorium.

Meeting Highlighted By PTA Installation

The 223rd St. School PTA held their last meeting of the year May 8 in the school auditorium. The president, Mrs. Ralph Robertson, presided. She dedicated the meeting to the mothers of the association.

Highlight of the day was the installation of officers for the coming year. They are as follows: Mmes. Hal Burgener, president; Edward Grijalva, first vice-president; C. Clifford Bergon, second vice-president; John Bankard, third vice-president; Ted Duron, secretary; James O'Neil, treasurer; Jimmie Morris, financial secretary; Dwayne Witty, parliamentarian; Lee Weinberg, principal of the school, auditor.

Since Mrs. Burgener, the president-elect, was attending the annual convention in San Francisco, Mrs. Richard Heitmayer, past president, was installed by proxy in her place. Mrs. Heitmayer also presented Mrs. Robertson with her past-president's pin.

Flower Show Is Planned

A scale model of the planned garden will be a highlight of the South Coast Botanical Garden Foundation's first flower show to be held at the Del Amo Shopping Center, Hawthorne and Sepulveda Blvds., according to Mrs. Frances Young, president.

The display will depict the garden as it will be developed as of the present planning of the Los Angeles County Department of Arboreta and Botanic Gardens. Garden clubs, societies, nurseries and individuals will have exhibits at the show. Of interest to junior horticulturists will be their own area of displays.

Show hours will be: 2 p.m. to 9 p.m., Friday, May 25; 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Saturday, May 26; and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Sunday, May 27.

TINY HELPER — "Y'all come!" invites Karla Raye Winters, as she helps in the planning of the first flower show of the South Coast Botanical Garden Foundation, Inc. Karla is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Winters of 2731 Via Anita, Palos Verdes Estates. The show will be held in the Del Amo Shopping Center May 25, 26 and 27.

Geranium Society Presenting Show At Plummer Park

"Geranium Symphony" is the theme of the fourth annual geranium and pelargonium show now being presented by the Southwest Branch of the International Geranium Society.

The event began yesterday and continues today at 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. Show is being held at Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd. in Los Angeles.

This show provides a unique opportunity for visitors to see and purchase some of the rarer types of geraniums.

Mrs. L. L. Scott is the show chairman and Mrs. Elsa Stone is one of the entry clerks in the horticultural section. She has served as entry clerk since the first show of the society was held.

Garden Valley Ass'n. Holding Second Meeting

The second annual meeting of the Garden Valley Association for Mentally Retarded Children has been set for Monday evening, May 21 at 8 p.m. Representatives from local groups who have made possible the successful operation of the association during the first year-and-a-half will be honored.

The program will include election of officers. Reports of this past year's activities will be given by committee chairmen. Colored slides of the Garden Valley Training Center in action will be shown.

The meeting will be held at the Bal-Nu-Yita Auditorium at 2304 Redondo Beach Blvd. in Gardena.

POLIO CLINIC

A polio and tetanus clinic will be conducted Tuesday, May 22, from 6 to 8:30 p.m. at the Yukon Elementary School cafeteria, 17815 Yukon Ave., Torrance. A fee of $1 will be charged for each inoculation with a $5 maximum in effect for each family. Doctor Glen Mahoney will administer the serum. The clinic is sponsored by the Yukon Elementary PTA.

Catholic Daughters To Install Officers

Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Torrance, has announced the election of Mrs. Robert Klaesges as grand regent. The formal installation ceremonies will be held June 7 in the Nativity Church auditorium, Torrance.

Mrs. Klaesges has been an active member of the court, having held offices as vice grand regent and historian. She has been chairman of the annual fashion show for the past two years. She is a former vice president of Nativity School Mothers' Club and presently serves as room mother; former publicity chairman for Nativity Altar Society; serves on the ways and means committee for Torrance National Little League; is a member of Bishop Montgomery Mothers' Club; and "Torrance Twirlers" square dance club.

Mrs. Klaesges has been assisted in many of these activities by her husband, who is an active member of Nativity Church Holy Name Society. He has offered his time and effort to help Court St. Catherine in its many projects to raise money for charity.

They are the parents of four children: Susan, 15, a student at Bishop Montgomery high school; David, 9, and Jean, 8, students at Nativity Elementary; and Kathy, 4, who will start school in September.

Elected to other offices were the following: Mmes. Harvey Lee, vice grand regent; Lloyd Landerville, pro-phetess; Andrew Raebel, financial secretary; Robert O'Brien, treasurer; Gordon Cady, monitor; Harry Hamilton, lecturer; George Rausch, sentinel; Joseph Cemore and Gordon Hicks, trustees and Charles Butterfield, organist. Continuing for another term as trustees are: Mmes. Don Bryant, Richard Ban, Louis Derouin, and Blake Welstead.

Details of the convention were discussed at the May meeting held last Wednesday at the Redondo Elks Club. The 8 p.m. program will include a film and demonstration of mouth to mouth resuscitation presented by William Petty, representative of Western Supply Company of Los Angeles.

Plans are being made for a dance to be held at the Jump 'n Jack Restaurant Saturday, June 23, which will be open to the public. Reservation for the event may be made by calling FR 5-1809 any evening.
