Public is invited to the showing held May 31 in the Campus Center at 3 p.m.

Fashion Show for El Camino College

Clothing made in home economics classes are scheduled to be shown at the ninth annual fashion show at El Camino College at 3 p.m., May 31, in the north patio of the Campus Theater.

"Attire will represent a cross section of all work done during the school year and will be divided into two categories," Mrs. Hattie Roberts, fashion show director, said.

The two categories will consist of apparel made by beginning sewing students as well as those in the more advanced classes.

Clothing types ranging from simple to ambitious in materials from cottons to woolens and silk will be shown against a natural setting. Mrs. Roberts commented, and will feature children's and men's clothing as well as women's attire.

Alternating narrators for the program are Joan Juckes and Janet Farrand, who are enrolled in advanced sewing classes. Music will be provided by Helen Dell at the organ.

Modeling men's attire will be Thomas George, Denny Rollins and Ken Suzino.
