JUST CRUISING AROUND
With Jay Powell

THE FINEST COOKS in the whole wide world pass through the Fortune Room. They're you—and you—and you. Because at Jean Ravelle's Fortune Room, 15500 S. Western Ave., you prepare your own steak just the way you like it.

A charcoal brazier and everything you need is provided in this cozy atmosphere. As you are lovingly bringing the piece de resistance to perfection, veteran mixologists serve your favorite beverages.

Your appetite whetted and the excellent meat done a turn, you are served your meal with green salad, your choice of dressing and boston baked beans. All for only $1.25 (with bar purchase).

Could any cook prepare finer food at any price? After you have visited this popular spot, I'm sure you will agree, "the finest cooks in the whole wide world pass through the Fortune Room."

A ONE MAN SHOW that is rated among the best and most versatile in show biz is permanently located right here in Torrance.

Bub Thomas, "Mr. Entertainment," "the greatest one man show since Red Skelton," your host at the Roaring 20's, does just about everything but give the place away to satisfy his clientele's constant craving for fun and entertainment.

"Better than Reno, Vegas or New York," some say. Others, "the most versatile showman in captivity." "And no cover or minimum charge."

With such a following, it is surprising how Bub finds so much time to devote to charitable endeavors. As a member of the North Torrance Lions Club, he draws caricatures for whatever sum the subject cares to donate to the Lions' White Cane Fund. Bub also does many shows for charity and educational organizations.

During the past five years as the owner of the Roaring 20's, 166th and Crenshaw, Bub has had people from all over the country coming to "take in the show."

He has had experience on the stage, screen, TV and in night clubs.

Want to know more? Take in the show at the Roaring 20's. Don't forget to ask for your FREE funny, funny record. Tell Bub, Jay sent you.

ON YOUR HONOR BOWL—a new and exciting way to become an expert bowler. And the longer you continue, the less it should cost you, because the Better you Bowl, the Less you Pay.

This special feature at the Gable House Bowl, 22501 Hawthorne Blvd., was dreamed up by owner Jerry Homel, to give you an incentive to bowl a better game.

Your score determines the price you pay. You may even bowl FREE if your score is high enough.

Adults (over 18 years of age) can take advantage of this opportunity Fridays 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturdays 12 noon to 6 p.m.

After your bowling session, you can unwind in the Rik-Sha Room, where your favorite drinks and food are served.

Appearing nightly at the Rik-Sha Room are Rex Stuart and his Jazz Trio. Cocktail hours are at noon and at midnight to make it convenient for you, no matter which shift you are on.

DINE IN COMFORT at the Persian Room, 208 W. Anaheim St., in Wilmington, on Memorial Day (or any other day for that matter.) Peggy and Chuck Delaney want their friends to know they will be open on Memorial Day, serving dinner from 4 to 10 p.m.

Charcoal broiled steaks and prime ribs are the featured items, but a great variety of excellent sea foods are also on the Persian Room menu.

Cocktails, too, of course, as you like them.

MINIATURE GOLF IS HERE to stay. So must be the belief of Dale Gasteiger, Roadium Drive-in Theater manager. The new course recently opened has proved to be a popular attraction, and many hundreds of players have putted around the world's most unusual, unique 18 holes.

We call the Roadium grounds by a new name now. To us it is no longer just a drive-in theater. It is now the "Roadium Drive-in Theater PARK." With a theater, a miniature golf course, a game room, and a swap meet, the Park title seems most appropriate.

GOOD ADVERTISING RESULTS for our clients are what we constantly strive for. And it is very gratifying to have our advertisers tell us whenever such results are achieved.

Laura and Dave Zorger of the Tower Drive-in, 17420 S. Western Ave., advertised a very good chicken dinner special in the TORRANCE PRESS week before last.

They were very pleased with the results and were kind enough to tell us so. Making us very pleased, also.

Their food being quite good, the folks who took advantage of the special must be very pleased, too.

The only ones who aren't pleased about the whole thing are probably those of you, dear readers, who did not accept their generous offer. Sorry you missed it, but in the future do read the TORRANCE PRESS a little more carefully, please.

Famed Ink Spots Appear Again at 'Porpoise Room'

The Ink Spots, famed for their mellow ballads and hauntingly nostalgic singing style, have returned to Marineland Restaurant on the Palos Verdes peninsula, marking another repeat appearance of the international favorites of song and rhythm in the "Porpoise Room."

They have been signed for a five-week engagement by owner George M. Foster, who is presenting the close harmony group nightly except Mondays through July 1.

Featuring songs that vibrate in the memory and touch the heart, the Ink Spots are renowned for their "talking choruses," a style

LA Outdoor Art Festival to Be Held June 15-17

The 10th All-City Outdoor Art Festival, Los Angeles' annual extravaganza art fair and largest of its kind in the country, will be held this year from June 15 thru 17 at the Municipal Art Gallery and grounds at Barnsdall Park in Hollywood, it was announced by Kenneth Ross, general manager of the Los Angeles Department of Municipal Art.

Ross said any amateur or professional artist living within the 30-mile radius is eligible to enter the exhibition and compete for the awards.

that is virtually a trademark of the vocal artists.

Their honey-sweet singing fame was launched on Decca Records in 1939 with "If I Didn't Care" and "It's Funny to Everyone But Me." Since then the sound of their voices has become as familiar in the American home as the sound of rain on the roof.
