

Women

CAROLYN PERKIO, Society Editor

☆ TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

AT BAT FOR BENEFIT—Members of the Riviera Little League Women's Auxiliary are busy preparing entertainment for Saturday night's dinner-dance benefit at Abalone Cove, Portuguese Bend. Members of the entertainment committee at bat are (left to right) Mmes. Don Neill, Joe Wilkowski, and Brian Steele. Theme of the event is "Shipwreck Party."

Korth, Strohl Exchange Vows At Local Evangelical Church

A 4 p.m. wedding ceremony at the Evangelical United Brethren Church of Torrance united Karen Sue Korth and Ronald R. Strohl in matrimony June 23.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Korth, 2439 Gramercy Ave., Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strohl of Northampton, Pennsylvania.

Miss Korth, who was escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white embossed nylon net over nylon. Her gown had a white chiffon nylon skirt.

BOUQUET
The bride carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by white carnations and stephanotis.

Presiding at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Walter M. Stanton. There were 100 guests present at the wedding.

Maid of honor for the bride was Susie Shierling. She wore a dress of beige silk linen and carried a bouquet of peppermint carnations.

BEST MAN
Best man at the ceremony was John Shierling. Ushers were Jerry and Terry Korth. Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at the church. At the

'D'Electable Recipes' Cookbook Released

"D'Electable Recipes," cookbook just off the press and sponsored by the Women's Committee to re-elect Attorney General Stanley Mosk, will be released July 10.

To launch the book on the public, a tea will be held honoring the attorney general and his wife. Dinah Shore, famed singing artist, will be present along with 1000 women from all parts of the Southland.

Information can be obtained by calling CR 3-1490, CR 3-4216 or DU 8-3141.

MRS. RONALD R. STROHL
... nee Karen Sue Korth
(Photo by Seeman)

Auxiliary Plans Shipwreck Party At Abalone Cove

"Shipwreck Party" is the theme of Saturday night's dinner-dance benefit sponsored by the Riviera Little League Women's Auxiliary.

The event, open to all parents of the league participants and friends, will be held at Abalone Cove, Portuguese Bend. A social hour will begin at 7:30 p.m. and a barbeque dinner will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Mike Roy, television and radio personality, will be master of ceremonies at the benefit. A cast of 40, including local talent under the direction of Mrs. William Watson, will entertain.

ACCOMPANIMENT
Accompanying the performers will be Virgil Crank, guitarist. William Thompson and Hector Theros will present vaudeville acts.

Acts entitled "Umpires Lament" and "Manager's Medley" will be under the direction of Ross Pinto, G. F. Tanza and M. G. Wilson.

Specialty acts will be performed by Mmes. James M. Hurst, Ambrose Schindler and Paul Day.

CAST MEMBERS
Other members of the cast are: Mmes. Thomas Battle, Lewis Corum, Rod Freeman, Edward Kent, Hugh Morris, Daniel Neill, William Petersen, Ralph Rector, Bernard Steele, Robert Sullivan, William Thompson, Joseph Wilbrowski and Catherine Burnett.

Auxiliary members working on the planning of the event are Mmes. Ross Pinto, president; Sullivan, art chairman; Donald Grady, Freeman, Petersen, Rector, Watson and Wilson.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Hugh Rice, FR 8-4620, or Mrs. Wilson, FR 5-4929.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Couple at Church

MRS. BARRY DANIEL EMENEGER
... the former Mary Loucille Tompkins
(Photo by Seeman)

A double ring ceremony June 24 joined Mary Loucille Tompkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Tompkins, 904 Faysmith Ave., Torrance, to Barry Daniel Emeneger, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Emeneger, 1723 Elm Ave., Torrance, at Nativity Catholic Church.

The bride, who was given away in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza with a fitted bodice which was re-embroidered with Alencon lace. She wore a court train and a shoulder veil attached to a pearl-studded crown.

Maid of honor for the bride was Patsy Cochran, who wore a turquoise, floor-length dress and yellow carnations.

BRIDESMAIDS
Bridesmaids, dressed in yellow sheath dresses and yellow hats and carrying yellow carnations, were Linda Tompkins, Sue Foster, Kris Reed and Linda Lancaster.

Flower girl at the ceremony was Jenny Tompkins, dressed in turquoise.

Best man for the bridegroom was Bob Emeneger. Ushers were John Holmstead, Mark Moulten, Frank Uribe and Bill Mosley.

NUPTIAL MUSIC
Wedding music at the ceremony was "Panis Anglicus," sung by Donna Stark. The church was decorated with gladiolas and chrysanthemums at the altar.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise silk sheath with matching shoes and hat to the wedding and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue silk gown with matching shoes and a white flowered hat.

A reception was held at 3:30 p.m. for the 90 guests at 904 Faysmith, Torrance. Assisting at the reception were Joan St. Armand, Margie Case and Marilyn Story. Judy Emeneger was at the guest book.

HONEYMOON

Following the reception, the new Mr. and Mrs. Emeneger departed for a one week honeymoon at Monterey. Their new residence is in Lomita.

The bride is a Torrance High School graduate and works as a receptionist at Palos Verdes Medical Center. The bridegroom attended Torrance High School and presently is employed at Douglas Aircraft in Torrance.

Principals, PTA Heads Discuss Year's Agenda

Principals and presidents within the Gateway Council of Parents and Teachers met recently at Banning High School in Wilmington to discuss the coming year's program.

Mrs. Wesley Lee, Gateway Council, presided, with Bernard Donahue, principal of Banning High and Mrs. John Blackmon, harbor regional director of Tenth District, assisting.

The question of the value of a PTA in the secondary schools was raised. Principals felt that PTA is the most vital link they have with the community, and discussed areas where it can be of greatest service.

It was agreed that council will again hold monthly meetings within the schools. Months for the hostess schools to hold the meetings were designated and agreed upon by the principals.

The group recommended that all senior high PTAs meet on the third Tuesday of each month, and all junior high PTAs meet on the fourth Tuesday, to avoid conflicting dates.

Membership drives, ways and means projects and the importance of communications were topics under discussion.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. E. Gambrell Croom, president, and Mrs. David Spence, junior past president of Banning High PTA.

Principals and presidents attending were Kenyon Smith, Mrs. Don Elliott, Dodson Jr. High; Albert Cartwright, Mrs. George Erickson, Stephen White Jr. High; Herbert Morey, Mrs. John Conshafter, Narbonne High; Dr. Thelma Barnes, Wilmington Jr. High; Pat Turner, Mrs. Albert Dudley, Fleming Jr. High; Arthur Farnham, Mrs. Preston Sharp, San Pedro High; Frances Stephan, Mrs. Creigh McIntyre, Peary Jr. High; Kay McQuire, Gardena High; Dick Miles, Mrs. Freddie Doolin, Dana Jr. High and Bernard Donahue, Mrs. E. Gambrell Croom, and Mrs. David Spence, Banning High.

St. Philomena's Women's Council Studies Agenda

Mrs. Clarence Turner, President of St. Philomena's Women's Council, announced the events on the agenda for July at the June meeting of the council.

The most outstanding event of the month is the annual rummage sale conducted by the ladies of the parish and open to the public. The sale is being held on July 20 and 21 on the parish grounds, 21900 So. Main St. The doors will open at 10 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Among other events for July are men's council meeting, tomorrow; bake sale, Sunday; women's council meeting, July 23, and two socials, July 12 and 26.

The two socials are presented by St. Mark's and St. Genevieve's Guilds, with Mmes. Keith Englehart and Robert Godana as chairman and co-chairman of the first guild, and Mmes. David Clemens and Robert Ortiz chairman and co-chairman of the latter.

The bake sale will be under the supervision of Mmes. Raymond Nieves and Dale Mark, chairman and co-chairman of St. Frances Guild. They will be assisted by the women of their guild for the bake sale, and also for the sale of coffee and donuts after the Sunday Masses during July.

Child Guidance Guild

The Guild of The Los Angeles Child Guidance Clinic held an annual membership tea at the home of Mrs. Feder. Mrs. Feder was installed as the new president succeeding Mrs. Joseph J. Keon, Jr. Other officers installed were Mmes. Herbert Bennington, Lloyd Cotsen, John Casier, David Lowe, John Ettlinger.

After the installation an informal talk was given to the members and new provisionals, whose duties are operating and staffing the guild's thrift shop.

Nuptial Vows Exchanged During 8 P.M. Ceremony

Nuptial vows uniting Brenda Gayle Pacina with John Anthony Sergi were exchanged at an 8 p.m. wedding ceremony June 30.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Martin Pacina, Yucaipa, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sergi, Youngstown, Ohio.

Presiding at the double ring ceremony at the Lutheran Church, 1725 Flower St., Torrance, was the Rev. William J. Roleder. The church was decorated with white mums, gladiolas and candleabras.

'Bottled' Flowers Highlight Tea Of Garden Club
Bottles of flower arrangements were featured at a recent Bottles and Bows tea held by the South Bay Garden Club.

Entries in the various contests included arrangements in all shapes and sized of bottles—from a tiny pill bottle to a gallon wine bottle.

Winners in the overall contest were Mrs. Harry J. Ebinger, first, and Mrs. C. P. Mason, second. In the junior division the winners were Darius Miller and Linda Miller.

GIVEN AWAY
Miss Pacina, who carried white roses and stephanotis and a white Bible, was given away in marriage by her father.

The matron of honor at the ceremony, Mrs. David Kincaid, wore a gown of pastel blue bridal taffeta with a tulle overskirt and carried sprayed blue carnations.

Bridesmaids wore green, yellow and pink pastel dresses with carnation bouquets sprayed to match their dresses. They wore satin dyed-to-match shoes.

BRIDESMAIDS
The bridesmaids were Mrs. William Bartlett, in green; Bernadine Pacina, in yellow; and Bonnie Pacina, in pink.

Best man for the bridegroom was David Herseman. Assisting as ushers were Ronald Sergi, David Kincaid and William Bartlett. Ring bearer was Jeff Bartlett.

Wedding music at the church was "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a gown of rose pink at the ceremony and the bridegroom's mother wore an aqua blue gown.

RECEPTION
A church reception was held immediately after the wedding. Mrs. Betty Shaughnessy served at the guest book and Mrs. Ralph Bussey, Charlene Parks and Judi Sogard assisted at the reception.

The newlyweds, who departed for a two-day honeymoon at Laguna Beach, presently reside at 2708 Gramercy St., Apt. C, Torrance.

Sergi, presently employed with Arrowhead Water, Inc. in Torrance, has served three years with the United States Marine Corps. He is a graduate of Youngstown High School.

The bride, a 1959 graduate of Redlands High School, is presently working as a secretary at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. She attended El Camino College, where she majored in music and took a one-year business course.

Club Makes Decorations For Hawaiian Festivity

Construction of leis and decorations for a September "Aloha Luau" kept 19 members of the South Bay Area council of Beta Sigma Phi busy, June 27, as they met at the home of Mrs. Milt Ventress. The event will be held at the Alondra Club.

The luau is a combination social and ways and means project by the council. All chapters will participate in handling decorations, door prizes and ticket sales.

"The council would like to extend an invitation to any new Beta Sigma Phi in the area to attend this event," said Mrs. Ventress. She added that persons interested could contact her at DA 3-1911.

Serving with Mrs. Ventress as co-chairman of the event is Mrs. Jack Cronander of Rho Xi.

Attending the work party were Mmes. Ralph Coner, Art Betzer, Sam Dominguez, Larry Langley, Ventress of Mu Omicron and Andy Saks, guest.

Others were Mmes. Jay Echelberger, Cronander of Rho Xi, Leroy Huisenga, Clifford Ostrander, Robert Kane, Charles Ray, Lola Abrams of Xi Theta Xi, Andrew Foster of Xi Zeta Chi, Fred Woodman, James Barnhart, Lee Von Iderstein of Rho Epsilon, Tom MacDonald and Richard Musto of Xi Zeta Lambda.

MRS. JOHN ANTHONY SERGI
... exchanges vows
(Photo by Seeman)