Double Ring Nuptial Event Unites Walters, Brenenstahl

A double ring nuptial ceremony set the atmosphere for the joining in marriage of Janet Walters to F. Dennis Brenenstahl, June 29.

Presiding at the 8 p.m. wedding was the Rev. William J. Roleder. The First Lutheran Church, site of the wedding, was lit by candlelight.

At the church, candles with white bows and ribbons decorated the center aisle. Baskets of gladiolas, white mums and stock decorated the altar. Candelabra was decorated with fern.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Walters, 20902 Dalton Ave., Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brenenstahl of Harbor City.

Miss Walters was given away in marriage at the altar wearing a gown with a bouffant floor-length skirt of chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta.

The bodice of the wedding gown was of chantilly lace with long pointed lace sleeves attached. The bride wore a Sabrina neckline embroidered with seed pearls and sequins.

LACE CROWN

Miss Walters wore a lace crown embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. It held a full silk illusion, elbow-length veil. She carried a cascade of six white orchids.

Maid of honor for the bride was Janice Walters, her cousin. Bridesmaids were Sally Andreasen, cousin; Karen Cernansky, Susan Anderson and Shiela Remington.

All bridesmaids and the maid of honor wore aqua-colored gowns with matching picture hats. Their bouquets were in pink.

BEST MAN

Best man for the bridegroom was Frank Rodriguez. Ushers were Ron Walters, brother of the bride; H. V. Cranks, John Bowen and Clark Linss.

Candle lighter at the ceremony was Douglas Swanson. Junior bridesmaid was Connie Lou Walters, sister of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a champagne-colored dacron and silk gown with a lace jacket. Mary Patterson of Lomita served at the guest book.

RECEPTION

Following a church reception, the newlyweds departed for a five-day honeymoon at Valley of the Moon, Lake Gregory.

Brenenstahl is employed by Newcastle and is a student at Harbor College. The bride is a graduate of Gardena High School and is employed by a Torrance corporation.

The couple has made its home at 21005 Donora St., Apt. 1, Torrance.

SB Garden Club Presents Speaker On Arrangements

In preparation for their garden show in August members of the South Bay Garden Club had as their speaker Mrs. Victor Benstead of Torrance.

Prominent in the world of flower arranging, Mrs. Benstead spoke on "Design and Planning of Floral Arrangements."

"Never overdo it — keep it airy," Mrs. Benstead said, as she trimmed a spray of greenery before adding it to the arrangement.

A rose, fern and wood arrangement thrilled the audience as the artist spoke of contrasts and colors.

Graceful heads of blue Agapanthus were combined with Nandina and Saxifrag to make a tall flower display.

Mrs. Benstead brought several containers from her collection as examples of the right vases for various subject matter.
