College Faculty Officers Prepare for Fall Semester

Richard G. Schwarzman, coordinator of audio visual services and history instructor, will head the El Camino College Faculty Association as president for the coming year.

Chairman of the faculty finance committee for the past year, Schwarzman is a resident of Manhattan Beach. He succeeds another beach resident and fellow Occidental College Alum, Miss Virginia Pfiffner, in office.

Prior to his arrival on the El Camino College campus, Schwarzman taught in the city schools of Santa Barbara, Beverly Hills and Los Angeles. In 1957 and 1958, he was the recipient of the Haynes Fellowship in Business History.

AUTHOR
The author of several published articles in the field of history, the new president has traveled extensively in Europe, Mexico, Canada and the United States. He has addressed a number of local service and special interest groups. He is currently continuing work toward the Ph.D degree of the University of California at Los Angeles.

On the ECC Faculty Association legislative committee in 1959, he served the group as treasurer in 1960 before serving as chairman of the finance committee during the past year.

RECEIVES DEGREE
Miss Pfiffner received her associate in arts degree at El Camino College, her bachelor of arts degree in psychology at Occidental College and her master of science degree in educational psychology from the University of Southern California.

In addition to a published book review, she is the author of a manual for use with an existing textbook, "Physiological Psychology," by Wenger, Jones and Jones.

PRIOR TO POST
Prior to her post as president of the Faculty Association, Miss Pfiffner served as secretary and vice president of the group. She holds membership in Psi Chi, an honorary psychology fraternity, Delta Kappa Gamma, a women's honorary education group, and Phi Beta Kappa, national honor scholastic group.

Serving with the new president during the coming year will be Mrs. Grace Edwards, drafting and technical illustration instructor, vice president; Mrs. Pat Barron, zoology instructor, secretary, and Willie Suzuki, art instructor and another El Camino College alum once active in student leadership on the campus, treasurer.

Board Authorizes Purchase of Land

Acquisition of land along 223rd St. near Vermont Ave. for street improvements was authorized today by the Board of Supervisors on motion of Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

The property to be acquired from Victor and Alma Rosset for $12,7000 is required for widening and improving of Vermont Ave. and 223rd St. between Vermont and the Harbor Freeway, Chace said.
