

Couple Exchanges Vows At Catholic Ceremony

White orchids and roses surrounded Rosalie Diane Rodriguez and James Lewis King as they exchanged wedding vows June 2 at St. Catherine Labouré Catholic church in Torrance.

Wedding official at the 3 p.m. ceremony was the Rev. Father William Hollinger.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Rodriguez, 2603 W. 176th St., Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Black, 1598 Regulus Dr., Point Mugh.

Miss Rodriguez was given away in marriage at the double ring ceremony by her father. She wore an original Alfred Angoleo gown of white satin and carried white orchids and roses.

Maid of honor at the wedding was Dolores Gonzales, sister of the bride. She wore a mint green, cocktail-length dress and carried carnations and roses to match.

Bridesmaids were Shirley Allen, Judy Ramsay, Pat Healy and Carol Rodriguez. They wore mint green, cocktail-length dresses also and carried carnations to match.

Serving as best man was William Garbode. Ushers were Jim Hunter, Victor Pisciotta, John Rhind, and Robert Fullbright.

Carrying a basket of mint green carnations and wearing a dress to match was Karen Rodriguez, flower girl. Ring bearer was Jon R. Rodriguez.

Mother of the bride wore a blue dress and blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose-beige dress with rose accessories. Wedding music at the church included "Ave Maria" and the "Wedding March." Nancy Pisciotta served at the guest book.

At 6 p.m. reception at the Gardena Elks Lodge followed the wedding. Catering for the event was Julio Pina.

The new Mr. and Mrs. King "escaped" from the reception for a one-month honeymoon at Acapulco, Mexico. The couple's residence is at 1415 Bonnie Brae, Hermosa Beach.

The bride is a 1956 graduate of North High and is employed at the Nor Air Division of Northrop at El Segundo. The bridegroom is a 1955 graduate of Mira Costa.

Music Featured At Local Park

"Music for a Summer Sunday," the second in a series of summer musical programs was presented by the Torrance Recreation Department Sunday.

Appearing on this second program of the summer Sunday series were the Stars Swing Unit under the direction of Jim Davidson.

This dance band, which is sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, is comprised of 24 teenagers who have been swinging together since last October. Each member is a talented performer on his instrument.

2515 1/2 Madison St., Long Beach 10, July 3.

Gregg Harold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Okert, 27630 S. Tarrasa, San Pedro, July 7.

Earlier this summer the Stars participated in this year's Battle of the Bands Contest which is sponsored by the L.A. County Parks and Recreation Department.

Special features of the show, in addition to several numbers from the band were a Dixieland group led by Jim Dawson and John Alter with Jimmy and Dwayne Crawley on the guitar and mandolin and Fred Petry and Danny Timms at the drums and piano. Also featured were the Star's vocalist, pretty Donnell Cook.

Conventional people are roused to fury by departure from convention, largely because they regard such a departure as a criticism of themselves.
