Your Southland Guide to the Best Time for Your Money

JUST CRUISING AROUND

With Jay Powell

OPENING OF SCHROEDER'S, at 1705 W. El Segundo Blvd., adds another first-class restaurant to the fast-growing Southland area.

Proud owners of this very attractive spot are Charles (Chuck) Schroeder and Herb McKee, both well qualified in food preparation.

Chuck, who acts as the general manager, had been associated with Tiny Naylor's for about seven years. Herb has had over 20 years experience as head chef in the Los Angeles area. Previously he has been at Robb's Steeple Chase in El Segundo and Robb's Glen Cove in West Los Angeles.

The partners also have operated Kee's Restaurant, 6031 San Vicente, Los Angeles, for the past two years. Schroeder's, with a seating capacity of 180, plus banquet accommodations for an additional 100, will serve only top quality Eastern choice meats and top quality sea food.

Customer satisfaction is the watchword with these two enterprising restaurateurs who are already gaining a reputation for excellent food and service at reasonable prices.

ALONDRA CLUB, 16411 Prairie Ave., thriving under the new management of Tony Alvarez offers the public a wide and diversified luncheon and dinner menu, featuring steak, frog legs, lobster.

Good food, wonderful cocktails, banquet accommodations for from 10 to 250 persons, ample parking — no wonder the Alondra is thrilling.

ALOKA, LUAU, ALOHA, might well be the chant at the POLYNESIAN for the next 10 days.

If we heard it, we would understand what all the excitement is about. — So, we will pass the good word on to you.

The Polynesian is having a Special Luau, Sunday, July 29, 1 to 6 p.m. Exotic luau dinner, entertainment, dancing, music. Better make reservations early.

This only authentic South Pacific restaurant in America located two miles south of Redondo Beach on Pacific Coast Hwy. — as if you didn't already know.

The reservation phone number is FR 8-1247 (which you may not know). So Aloha, see you at the luau.

Di Tosti Trio at Pen & Quill

In line with its new supper dancing policy, The Pen & Quill in Manhattan Beach has signed the Ben Di Tosti Trio to play dance music at the coast highway hotel-restaurant, where the popular instrumental group just opened a six-week engagement.

Featuring a varied repertoire of show tunes, the Twist, jazz, Latin and popular music, the captivating trio entertain nightly except Mondays in the cocktail lounge-supper room.

The Ben Di Tosti group recently made its recording debut for World Pacific Records with an album entitled "Carnival." Before coming to the Pen & Quill, the music-makers appeared at La Presedio in San Diego, Agua Caliente, Tail o' the Cock and other prestige dining spots in the Southland.

Instrumentation includes Di Tosti at the piano, vocalist Lyle Ames on drums and flute, while bass, guitar and trombone are played with commendable scope and dimension by Bob Hirschman.
