

ARM FULL OF PUPPY — Lisa Behr, four-year-old National Poster Child for the 1962 Cystic Fibrosis campaign, gets acquainted with her new puppy—presented to her by the Los Angeles SPCA as a tribute to her for serving as a symbol of the 20,000-25,000 CF children throughout the U.S. George Crosier, general manager of the Society, made the presentation.

Local Dramatists Open 'Seven-Year Itch' Friday

Happy confusion reigned high at Chapel Theatre all week, with cast, crew, and everyone concerned with the new production, which opened Friday, 8:30 p.m., running around the theater coordinating sets, costumes, props in last minute preparations before opening a four-week-end run of "The Seven Year Itch."

Chapel Theater is located at 4164 Pacific Coast Highway, Torrance, behind Smith Bros. Fish Shanty restaurant.

Frank Herman, known as "Skipper Frank" of the KTLA's Cartoon Carousel, will trade in his "Skipper" hat for slippers and pine for the starring role as Richard who, after being married seven years, finds himself in situations beyond his wildest imaginations when he is left at home to be a bachelor for the summer. The unbelievable dream sequences which Richard experiences occur after meeting "The Girl Upstairs."

NOT ONLY SKIPPER — Frank Herman is known not only as Skipper Frank, but as a magician-ventriloquist in night clubs and hotel spots all over the world, having also appeared in variety shows on TV, movies, radio and countless special event shows. He has been MC of the Rose Parade telecast in Pasadena, as well as entertaining overseas.

Director Larry G. Boyd, commented that he is most pleased with the casting and predicts another hit for Chapel Theatre. Cast includes: Kyra Ellen Stephens of Palos Verdes Estates as Richard's wife Helen; Jimmy Russi of Redondo Beach as Ricky, Richard's son; Susan Parks of Manhattan Beach as Miss Morris; Naomi Moore of Redondo Beach as Elaine; Sally Slatter of Torrance as Marie-Whatever-Her-Name-Was; Jeanne Appel of Torrance as The Girl Upstairs; Denton Wable of Redondo Beach as Dr. Brubaker; Jim Easton of Hawthorne as Tom, Helen's boy friend; Jean Russi of Redondo Beach as Pat, and The Voice of Richard's Conscience will be Mark Palmer of Redondo Beach.

Reservations for any of the four-weekend performances may be made by calling the box office, FR 2-9636. Since there are some evenings which are sold out, it is suggested that reservations be made well in advance. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m., Fridays through Sundays. Ticket prices are $1.50 on Fridays and Sundays; $1.75 on Saturdays.

ART DISPLAY
Ready to adorn the auditorium walls of the theater are paintings by Dale Harrison, whose selections are in the abstract expressionist vein. This collection will be viewed by audiences during the entire run of "The Seven Year Itch." This will be second showing in Chapel Theatre by Harrison, whose paintings are also included in many private collections and has exhibited in four Los Angeles area showings.

Local Insurance Man
Jerry Jourdan, claim representative for State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company at 3810 Pacific Coast Highway, Torrance, has returned after completing three weeks of technical study at his firm's home office at Bloomington, Ill.

State Farm maintains the school on a year-round basis so representatives may be informed of the latest methods, policy contracts and procedures in claim servicing. This year some 750 men will attend classes there.

Conservatism is the maintenance of conventions already in force.
