PTA Ratifies Chairmen

Howard Wood PTA executive board, at a meeting July 16, ratified appointment of Mmes. Sam Tomasada and John Jackson as character and spiritual chairman and registrar.

The board appointed Mrs. James A. Davis as first vice president and Mrs. William Brown as third vice president to fill vacancies created by resignations.

Mrs. Joe Ankerberg, unit president, announced that the following chairmen have been ratified by the board: Mmes. Robert Velarde, hospitality; R. Yamahata, hospitality co-chairman; Joe Lopez, magazines and emblems; James A. Davis, publicity and record book; Edward Carroll, welfare.

Mrs. Earl Moore, fourth vice president, reported that the recent Animal Fair was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by the children, who entered pets ranging from a mouse to a horse.

Tell Them for Coming Year

Members of the program committee of the Fleming Junior High PTA recently met with Mrs. Ruth Wene, school representative and vice principal, and Pat Turner, principal.

The theme, around which programs will be planned, for the coming year was established as Junior Hi-Ways. Programs, each which will be listed in the Newsette, have been planned by the PTA.

Members attending the meeting were Mmes. Margaret Glencove, Ethel Behl, program chairman; Al Dudley, president elect, Fleming Jr. High PTA; Michael Travers, Jean Titus and Verda Samson.

Mrs. Dudley was presented a lamp and a set of pictures by the board. Mrs. Kenneth Bridges presented her with a pair of earrings.

Meet for Card Party

Torrance Woman's Club will hold a card party featuring bridge, 500, canasta, pinocle and bingo Tuesday at 8:15 p.m.

In charge of the event, to be held at Torrance Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia, is Mrs. Ann Reid.

B'nai B'rith Holds Event For Twisters

The "Twisting Sixties" will be the theme of the next gala event sponsored by the Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women. The event will be held July 28 at 8:45 p.m. at the La Spina Dance Studio on Rosecrans and Van Ness Aves.

Admission price of 1.50 per person also includes admission to the forthcoming Harvest Moon Ball and Raffle.

Mrs. Barry Gerson of Torrance, who is president of the group, announced, that a professional bartender will be in attendance to provide drinks at nominal prices. Refreshments will be served at no charge.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Herbert Schwartz at FA 1-5439.

Club Women Hold Couples Bridge

Couples Bridge, sponsored by the Redondo Beach Dianans, Marina District, Junior Federated Women's Club, is played every third Friday of the month at 8:00 p.m., and held in the various homes of club members.

Past and present Dianans and their husbands play 18 games each evening and contribute to a nightly first and second prize.

At the end of each six or seven-month period, scores are tallied and a play-off is held to see who the grand prize winners will be. One half of the money donated at this time is placed in the Diana treasury and used in philanthropies.

Hosting this month are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Clarke, Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Those playing at the Clarke's included the James McPhersons of Palos Verdes Estates, the D. J. Gleasons of Hollywood Riviera, and the Patrick Callahans of South Redondo.

Dessert and coffee are served each month.
