

STARRY EVENING—Members and husbands of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club leave for an evening under the stars which they attended recently at the Hollywood Bowl. Getting ready to board are (left to right) Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Forestal, president of Torrance Juniors and husband; and Mr. and Mrs. Cloyton Ashford, a new provisional and husband.

CDA Court Appoints Chairmen

Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters of America announced the 1962-63 committee chairmen at a recent business conducted by the newly-elected grand regent, Mrs. Richard Wurm.

They are the Mmes. Joseph Baune and Lee Diamond, co-chairman of ways and means; Laura Dupont and David Stone, co-chairmen, hospitality; Charles Fischer, extension; Sam Estes, education and legislation; Leroy Siddons, social welfare; Carmel Clune, Share the Faith and World Missions; Frank Turner, confraternity; Gerold Lechner, rules committee; Stacey Rodman, telephone; Fred Gervig, publicity.

Members of the co-ordinating council are Ernest Tarrin, American Martyrs Parish; Marie West, Guadalupe Parish; Richard Abshear, St. James Parish; Paul Hogan, St. Lawrence Parish.

VISITING

Sick and visiting committee members are Mmes. Richard Wurm, Wesley Muzik, Rodman, Hogan, Laura Dupont and Marie West.

Mrs. Richard Abshear was re-appointed as chairman of the Junior Catholic Daughters. New chairmen of the Catholic Daughter Juniors are Mrs. Rhonald Metro, Redondo Beach and Torrance areas, and Mrs. Ernest Tarrin of the recently organized Manhattan Beach area group.

Mrs. Wurm gave a report on the Solemn High Mass presided over by Cardinal McIntyre at St. Vibiana's Cathedral in commemoration of the declaration. This Mass is sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America annually on the Fourth of July. It is the only occasion for which permission is granted for public appearance of the officers in the robes of the order.

ROBES

Members in attendance wearing the respective robes of the office were the Mmes. Mildred Wurm, Laura Dupont, Frank Ives, Charles Fischer, Ernest Tarrin, Frank Turner and Stella Dionysius.

Mrs. Richard Abshear, junior chairman and Mrs. Roger Ste. Marie, junior counsellor, wearing the white and green uniform of the juniors, accompanied Janette Acree, Patricia Rasso, Linda Shannon, Synthia Somerset, Linda Ste. Marie and Rebecca Wassmuth.

NEW BUSINESS

During the new business portion of the meeting, the membership voted to give a tuition scholarship to a needy student at Bishop Montgomery High School and to continue financial support to a Priest-brother at Trinity Missions at Silver Springs, Maryland. They voted to continue to support Teresita Pines summer camp for girls.

Herzog-Mainey Vows Said at St. Andrews

Nuptial promises were exchanged at a double-ring wedding ceremony July 14 by Sandra Kaye Herzog and Robert F. Mainey at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Herzog, 20556 Entradero, Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mainey, 1302 So. Gertruda, Redondo Beach.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladiolus, stocks and mums, with candelabra, adorned with white bows and bells and blue tulle, along the aisle.

PRESIDING

Presiding at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony was the Rev. Paul C. Cox. The bride was given away in marriage by her father.

Miss Herzog appeared at the altar in a brocade sheath with a silk organza full overskirt, three-quarter length sleeves, a square neckline. Her shoulder-length, tulle veil was attached to a headpiece of roses and crystals.

The bride carried a crescent cascade bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids and stphanotis with fringed mums. She wore a diamond necklace, a gift from her father, with an "Evening Star" setting which matched her engagement ring.

MAID OF HONOR

Maid of honor was Fatsy Herzog, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids were Judy Church, Twylah Rives, Sandy Smith and Mrs. Dundee Jones. Junior bridesmaid was Stephanie Herzog.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore blue dresses with brocade bodices and full nylon organza skirts. They carried crescent armed bouquets with white gladiolus and gladiolus and cobalt blue streamers.

Flower girls were Tonya Fromberg and Diane Denison, cousins of the bride. They wore blue organza dresses and blue hats with roses and veils. They carried rose petals. Ring bearer was Michael Wilbanks, cousin of the bride.

BEST MAN

Best man at the ceremony was David Wasserman, Sacramento, a fraternity pledge brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Lynn Aspen, Pat Maharg, Cary Svoevland, David Generas and Steven Tillman.

Two receptions were held after the ceremony—at the Fellowship hall at the church and at the home of the bride. The newlyweds departed for a honeymoon at Palm Springs and will reside at 3929 W. 242nd St., Torrance, upon their return. The bride wore a white brocade suit with lavender accessories.

Soloist at the wedding was Carol Neblett, who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer." Organist was Howard Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wood, friends of the bridegroom's parents.

The bride and bridegroom attended Redondo Union High School and El Camino. She presently is secretary at International Rectifier at El Segundo. The bridegroom attended the University of California at Berkeley, where he was affiliated with Theta Delta Chi fraternity. He is employed at Shell Chemical of Torrance.

MRS. ROBERT F. MAINEY ... nee Sandra Kaye Herzog (Photo by Carrington's)

Pair Exchange Nuptial Vows at Lawrence Martyr

The setting for the July 7 afternoon wedding ceremony uniting Mardell Odett Blaylock and Joseph Stephen Stigmon was the St. Lawrence Martyr Church in Redondo Beach.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Blaylock of Palos Verdes Estates and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Sarah Ellen Stigmon of Granada Hills and the late Joseph Stigmon, former businessman of Culver City. Officiating at the double ring ceremony, witnessed by over 300 guests, was the Rev. Charles Ara.

AT ALTAR

The bride appeared at the altar on the arm of her father wearing an original gown of silk organza and chantilly lace over satin and net. The sabrina neckline of the gown was outlined with tiny, seed pearls and sequins. Lace applique formed scallops on the front and back of the gown with the lower folds in the back caught with roses and ending in a billowing chapel train.

Barbara Milner, maid of honor, was dressed in an aqua, silk organza over taffeta with an overskirt. She wore an aqua pill box hat and carried a half-moon arrangement of white daisies with pale yellow centers.

BRIDESMAIDS

Bridesmaids, wearing gowns fashioned after that of the maid of honor, were Carolyn Cole, Carolyn Milner, DeNola Bryce and Sharon Sundskey.

Flower girl Cheryl Terrill was dressed in an aqua silk organza gown with tulle organza overlay of white. She carried a white net basket of pale yellow rose petals. Accompanying Miss Terrill was Ricky Terrill, ring bearer, who carried the rings on a white satin heart-shaped pillow.

BEST MAN

Best man Shel Marco was assisted by John Stigmon, the bridegroom's brother; Robert W. Baylock, brother of the bride; and Randy Elliot and George Elliot.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro. Relatives and close friends were entertained at the home of the bride's parents after the reception.

The newlyweds departed for a two-week honeymoon in Carmel, Tahoe and Las Vegas. They have made their residence in Lomita.

The bride, a graduate of Narbonne High School, attended Long Beach business school. The former Rainbow of the Hawthorne assembly is presently employed at El Tek Inc. in Hawthorne.

The bridegroom is a graduate of San Fernando High School and is manager of Kinney's Shoe Store in Harbor City.

Secret's Out

"I know a secret," can be said by only a few members of the Redondo Beach Dianans, Marina District, Federated Junior Women's Club. Imagine being caught without make-up, curlers in your hair, and wearing your oldest nightie!

This will happen to the uninformed about 7:30 a.m. some Saturday morning in the near future when the Dianans hold their annual "Come As You Are" breakfast.

Always a surprise to those not transporting members, this breakfast, held in a member's home, is the best giggle-getter of the summer. It makes for fun for neighbors who view the products of surprise too.

It is suggested that provisionals take heed of this warning as they may be met sooner than they think.

Already listed: Mmes. Pravin Bhuta, Ronald Deckert, Wallace Duke, Jerry Farrens, Bruce Humphries, Thomas Jackson, Robert Johnson, Paul Lucas, Tom Mitchell, John Orr, Nick Rinaldi, Paul Seide, Kenneth Slade, Gene Torrence, Ray Williams, Raymond Wenger and Miss Mickey Lawson.

Women

CAROLYN PERKIO, Society Editor TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Club Sends President To Washington Meeting

Mrs. Herma Tillim, president of the Pilot Club of Torrance, was named official delegate to the 41st annual convention of Pilot Club International in Washington, D.C., July 22 to 26. Mrs. W. C. Bowen, first vice president, was chosen as alternate delegate.

Pilot Club International is one of the five international classified service organizations for executive business and professional women. There are 448 clubs with 13,000 members in the United States, Canada, England, France, Bermuda and Japan. The headquarters for Pilot Club International is in Macon, Ga.

SPEAKERS

The speakers included Inspector Edward C. Kemper, Jr., of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, whose keynote address was "Our Responsibility." Charles T. Vetter, Jr., staff lecturer with the Professional Training School of the United States Information Agency, spoke on "The World Challenge to Communicate" at the President's Banquet.

Mrs. Ruth H. Kodani of Pacific Palisades, chairman of the Women's Group on the president's committee for traffic safety, spoke at the safety luncheon. Her subject was "The Privilege of Service in Saftety, Our Heritage." Mrs. Agnes Beaton, director of women's activities for All-State Safety Foundation, presented safety awards at the luncheon.

Richard W. Reuter, executive director of CARE, Inc., spoke at the morning business session. Dr. Frederick Brown Harris, chaplain of the United States Senate, will pronounce the invocation at the president's banquet.

REPRESENTATIVES

Representatives from other organizations who appeared on the committee workshop programs included Mrs. Charlotte Leyden with the American Cancer Association, Virginia Blood of the National Foundation and Salk Institute, W. C. "Tom" Sawyer of Freedoms Foundation, and Glenn H. Reynolds, consultant for the American Heart Association.

PTA Announces 'Breezing' Theme

Newton PTA discussed plans for the coming year at a recent board meeting held in the home of Mrs. William Thomas, program chairman.

Theme chosen for the year will be, "Breezing Along." Plans were completed for a teachers luncheon, Sept. 11, and a welcoming coffee for kindergarten mothers in the cafeteria Sept. 12.

The next board meeting will be Sept. 4 in the home of Mrs. David Tanner at 8 p.m.

Late Afternoon Nuptial Promises Join Couple

A 4 p.m. nuptial ceremony joined Linda Jean Munroe and John E. Cassinelli in matrimony at the Lawndale Church of Christ.

Presiding at the June 16 wedding was the Rev. Ellett Lettis.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Winjoan Young, 1816 Marshallfield Lane, Redondo Beach, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cassinelli, 4017 Emerald St., Torrance.

Miss Munroe wore a white, full-length gown and a finger tip chantilly lace veil. She carried white and red roses surrounding a white orchid.

ATTENDANTS

Attending the bride, who was given away in marriage by Harold Helpman, her cousin, were Mrs. Marlane Duke, matron of honor, and Mrs. Gloria Green, Mrs. Beverly Dunham, Mrs. Helen Resong, Mrs. Bill Blankenship and Ruth Cassinelli, maids of honor.

The bride's attendants were dressed in white and carried coral carnations.

Best man at the double ring ceremony was Clinton Munroe. Ushers were Jim Tooker, Dick Riser, Larry Fry, Bill Blankenship and Joe Resong.

FLOWER GIRL

Flower girl was Debbie Ann Duke, who wore a white gown with a beige sash and carried white and coral flowers.

A reception for the newlyweds was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The new Mr. and Mrs. Cassinelli departed for a two-week honeymoon at

MRS. JOHN E. CASSINELLI ... the former Linda Jean Munroe

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH STEPHEN STIGMON ... joined in marriage