

72-Year-Old to Attend Ministers' Assembly

Ethel Mayhew of 2422 Arlington Ave., Torrance, is the oldest member of the Torrance congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. Although past her three score and ten years she plans to be among the 7,500 delegates to the "Courageous Ministers District Assembly" at the Orange County Fairgrounds near Costa Mesa Aug. 10 to 12.

Mrs. Mayhew is 72 years of age and is still active in the ministerial work of Jehovah's Witnesses. Many residents of this area have been aided to a better understanding of the Bible because of her patient ministry.

"I have thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity of helping others to learn of God's will and of studying His Word with many in their homes. In my opinion there is no other work on earth as rewarding," Mrs. Mayhew said, in discussing her more than 42 years in the ministry.

"Retirement has never been the objective of those associated with the preaching fellowship of Jehovah's Witnesses, nor is it mine, and I shall continue as long as I am privileged to do so, in fact I am making plans to attend this three-day program of Bible training so as to improve my own teaching ability," she maintained.

"To stimulate and encourage us to Godly living and Christian unity, 48 assemblies have been arranged by The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York for the more than a quarter million Witnesses in the United States," she said.

Concert Stars Matute Group

The fourth in the series of the Torrance Recreation Department's "Music for a Summer Sunday" band concerts will be presented by Paul Matute and his group today at the Torrance Park Bandshell. The program will begin at 2 p.m. and there will be no admission charge.

During the past year, this band, most of whose members are students at South High School, placed first in the El Camino College Jazz Festival in the school band division.

The band features vocals by Diane, Judy and Julie Moye.
