Ramblin' Round

With Jay Powell

VERY FEW WORDS ARE as sweet-sounding to us as FREE — especially when coupled with BUFFET.

To enjoy a few martinis, and then with the appetite whetted to the ravenous stage, what a satisfying feeling it is to gorge on wonderful buffet snacks.

Well, you and I have our chance to do just that this Wednesday and Thursday, August 8 and 9.

CORSO'S CANDLE ROOM, 3800 Pacific Coast Hwy., is celebrating its fifth anniversary and Joe Corso invites us all to a free buffet from 8 to 10 p.m.

Continuous entertainment with two different floor shows — no intermission. First show starts at 8:25. Better call FR 5-4776 and reserve a table or you may have to eat in the parking lot.

BUSINESS IS BOOMING at SCHROEDER'S, attractive restaurant just recently opened at 1705 W. El Segundo Blvd.

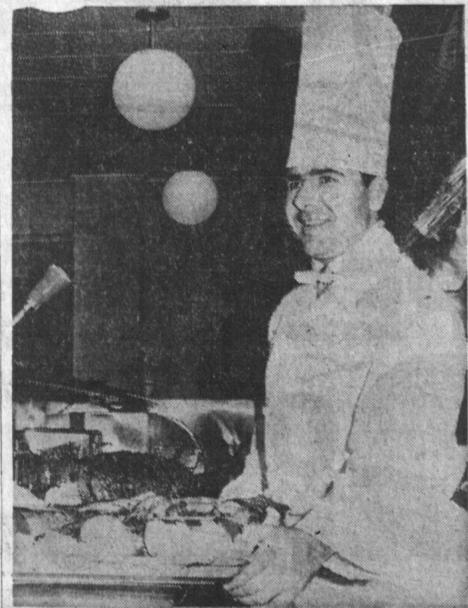

And why shouldn't it. — Pleasant surroundings, good service, and best of all — excellent food.

The excellence of the food is mainly attributed to the genius of Head Chef Angelo Boussiacos.

Angelo, who learned food preparation in some of the best kitchens in France, has been a chef for the past nine years. He served as head chef at the Pantheon Hotel, Athens, Greece, before joining the staff of the Hotel De La Salle, Montreal, Canada.

Four years ago he came to this area and has been head chef in some of the better restaurants, among them the Chef's Three Lions, of Redondo Beach.

French cuisine is Angelo's

ANGELO BOUSSIACOS, genius head chef at Schroeder's, 1705 W. El Segundo Blvd., who brings 'em back again for more of his French cuisine specialties.

MUSIC AND MIRTH AT MARINELAND — Current attraction at the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes are the Wilder Brothers and their swinging Sextet, whose extraordinary musical comedy show is a hit in the specialty. We only need to hear the mention of his Chateaubriand Bouquetiere and our salivary glands go into an action.

Here's why, Angelo takes an 18 oz. Filet Mignon, does some real French cooking magic with this beautiful hunk of meat. He then has it served with sauce Bearnaise and four or five deliciously prepared vegetables. We're drooling already, aren't you?

Another specialty is Turkey Marco Polo. An all white meat turkey feast with supreme sauce and broccoli.

Not only is Angelo painstaking about the preparation of the food, but he also makes sure it is attractively garnished and served well.

Want to impress your friends — or the gastronomical and let Angelo introduce you to some gourmet delights.

THE BEAUTIFUL CRYSTAL ROOM at Ray Bell's PALMS, 1925 W. Carson St. awaits your banqueting, partying or dancing pleasure. Charcoal Broiled Steaks or

"Porpoise Room." The vocal-instrumental group entertains the cocktail-dinner crowd at George M. Foster's seacoast dining spot nightly except Mondays. Weekend reservations are a must in the "Porpoise Room."

Prime Ribs, with suitably excellent cocktails in this beautiful atmosphere, can make your get-together a huge success.

Phone FA 8-2424 and tell them your requirements, then get set for a wonderful time.

DO YOU LIKE SURPRISES? Pleasant ones. Then you should be pleasantly surprised at the SMITH BROS. FISH SHANTY, 4020 Pacific Coast Hwy. Surprise Luncheons are featured Mondays through Saturdays — and for only $1.20.

It might be Prime Rib. It might include a Martini. It might be Chicken a la King. But whatever it is, you'll be delightfully surprised by how pleasing it is to your palate.

Why take a chance on just any table in the house? Call FR 5-2294 for a reservation. — And tell them Jay said he guaranteed you will be pleasantly surprised.

SENSATIONAL IS THE NAME FOR Charlie Owens "Sensational Ink-spots." And sensational they are indeed. These fabulous entertainers have been "packing 'em in" at Corso's Candle Room, 3800 Pacific Coast Hwy.
