

Bozo to Clown for Children At Shopping Center Friday

Bozo the clown, television favorite of millions will make a personal appearance at Rolling Hills Plaza Shopping Center at 1 p.m., Friday.

Rolling Hills Plaza Shopping Center, located at Pacific Coast Highway and Crenshaw is planning for the large crowds usually present for the hour long show featuring fun, magic, free gifts and that special clowning hilarity made famous by KTLA's, in person "Bozo the Clown" star Vance Colvig.

The Merchants Association of Rolling Hills Plaza are hosts for this show and no admission will be charged.

Part of Bozo's activity will be centered around Space Pirate Park, the free playground in Rolling Hills Plaza where the youngsters can play on spaceships, submarines, pirate ships and numerous other structures all designed to delight them under constant adult supervision while parents shop in the some 28 stores in the shopping center.

ONLY CELEBES APES
The only herd of Celebes Apes to be found in the United States are residents of Monkey Island at Jungland in Thousand Oaks. These tailless little fellows are valued at $500 each.
