

Reception in Garden Follows Pair's Vows

A garden reception followed the nuptial vows joining Evelyn Marie Jones to Philip J. Rusch at St. Lawrence Martyr Church.

The nuptial event was held at noon July 28. The church was decorated with two main altar arrangements and two side altar arrangements of white gladiolas and stock. The altar was decorated with white stephanotis, blue stock and white satin ribbons.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Jones, 22710 Draille Dr., Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Rusch, 418 E. 185th St., Gardena.

Officiating at the doubling ceremony was the Rev. Father Charles Sra. Miss Jones was given away in marriage before 125 guests by her father.

She wore a bridal original gown of white nylon chiffon and lace applique over taffeta skirt. The gown had a shallow neckline, three-quarter-length sleeves and a bustle back.

VEIL. A chapel-length veil of illusion was held by a crown of embroidered lace and pearls. She carried a cascade of white-split carnations and stephanotis.

Attendants of the bride, all dressed in blue brocade, satin sheaths with matching overskirts, were Lois Rusch, maid of honor, and Mrs. Glen Seltzer and Mrs. Charles Horvath, bridesmaids. They carried cascades of pink traveler gladiolas.

Best man at the ceremony was Alfred Brown, Jr. Ushers were Thomas Rusch and Charles Horvath. Music was provided by Mrs. Mary Stoecker, organist.

ATTENDING

Attending the guest book was Mrs. Alfred Brown, Sr. Assisting at the reception, held at the bride's parent's home, were Mrs. May McEwen and her granddaughter.

Mother of the bride wore a gown of beige lace over taffeta and pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise satin, brocade dress with bone accessories.

DEPARTED

Following the reception, the newlyweds departed for Wichita Falls, Tex., where they have made their home. The bridegroom, in the air force, is stationed at Shepherd Air Force Base. He is a 1961 South High School graduate.

Sunday Features 'Workman' Theme

"Workman Need Not be Ashamed" will be the sermon topic at Labor Sunday's worship service at the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd.

At the pulpit during the 11 a.m. service will be the Rev. Dr. R. Murray Jones, who will be welcomed back after his vacation. Nursery care will be provided for children of congregation members.

Church school begins at 9:30 a.m. every Sunday with classes for all ages, three years through adult. Nursery care is provided for the convenience of teachers and parents attending the adult Bible class.

Malcolm Hamilton, new choir director and organist, will assume his duties this week. Hamilton has come from Vancouver, B.C. to attend University of Southern California to work for his degree of doctor of musical arts.

He has a background of musical training and experience. The first rehearsal of the choir for the fall will be held Sept. 5 at 7:30 p.m. Persons in the choir and members of the church interested in joining the choir may attend.
