News Of Servicemen

Ismael Garcia, Jr., chief radioman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ismael Garcia of 3239 W. 188th St., Torrance, is serving at the Naval Missile Center, Point Mugu.

The center, the oldest organization involved in testing guided missiles over land and water, provides facilities for the testing and evaluation of naval guided missiles and their related components and weapons systems.

It was at the center that the first air-to-air missile successfully downed an aerial target, that a surface-to-surface missile was first fired from submarine and that the first demonstration was made of the technique of launching large missiles from open water.

ARMY PVT. Adam W. Geiger, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam M. Geiger, 2145 W. 178th St., Torrance, recently completed the four-week airborne course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga. Geiger received instruction in parachuting and the techniques of air-dropping troops and cargo. He entered the Army in February, 1962, and completed basic training at Fort Ord. Geiger attended North High School.

AIRMAN BASIC Alan D. Bollinger, son of Mrs. Marjorie A. Lowry of 1534 E. Denni St., Wilmington, has been selected to attend the United States Air Force technical training course for air policemen at Lackland AFB, Texas. Airman Bollinger, who has completed his basic military training at Lackland, was chosen for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes. The airman is a 1962 graduate of Baldwin Park High School.

Airman Basic Alfred R. Sollars, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Sollars of 3435 227th St., Torrance, is being reassigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for supply specialists at Amarillo AFB, Tex.

Airman Sollars, who has completed his basic military training here, was selected for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

The airman is a 1962 graduate of South High School.

Marine Corporal Roger D. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil O. Harris of 3428 W. 118 St., Torrance, is serving with the Second Battalion, Third Marine Regiment of the Third Marine Division, currently afloat as the battalion landing team of the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Airman Second Class Ronald Wittman of Torrance, has completed the United States Air Force Security Service special communications course here.

Airman Wittman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Wittman of 2023 W. 181st St., Torrance, is being reassigned to a permanent base for duty in his new technical specialty.

The Second Battalion relieved the First Battalion of duty August 10, and will serve aboard Seventh Fleet ships for approximately 10 weeks, during which time they will make several practice amphibious assaults.

Afloat to serve as our nation's "force-in-readiness," the marines are scheduled to visit Japan, Hong Kong and the Philippines between operational training assignments.

A graduate of Morning-side High School in Inglewood, he attended El Camino College, Lawndale, Calif. Airman Wittman entered the service in October 1961. His wife is the former Jacqueline L. Cook of 5802 Oakdale, Woodland Hills.

Marine Aviation Cadet James B. Balducci, son of Bert G. Balducci of Amie Ave., Torrance, reported, July 26, for training at the Naval School of Pre-Flight at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla.

Army National Guard Sgt. Robert A. Morgan, whose wife, Patricia, lives at 3131 W. 186th St., Torrance, recently completed the teletypewriter equipment repair course at The Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga.

Upon completion of the 16-week pre-flight and officer indoctrination course, the aviation cadets will be transferred to Saufley Field Naval Auxiliary Air Station, also at Pensacola, for primary flight training leading to designations as naval aviators or marine pilots.

Morgan, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Morgan, 3212 W. 186th St., is a 1958 graduate of North High School. He attended El Camino College, Torrance.

Youngsters Must Be Immunized, Schools Warn

TORRANCE — Youngsters planning on entering Torrance schools this fall must have certificates of polio immunization, parents were reminded this week.

State law prevents children from remaining in school after Sept. 26 unless they have had at least one polio immunization or unless parents have filed a statement with the school that immunization is contrary to belief.

Immunization is available Mondays and Fridays from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1 to 3 p.m. at Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson St.

Airman Second Class Godfrey G. Grant of Palos Verdes Estates, has completed the United States Air Force technical training course for missile guidance systems mechanics here.

ONLY GIRAFFE
 Jungleground in Thousand Oaks, boasts of having the only giraffe in the Los Angeles area. "Henry" is three years old and is 12 feet tall and still growing! Believe it or not, the giraffe has just seven vertebrae in its neck, the same as man.

Airman Grant learned maintenance, inspection and repair of the Mace missile guidance system and guidance checkout equipment. He will remain here for duty.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney G. Grant of 27116 Grayslake Rd., Palos Verdes Estates, the airman is a graduate of Inglewood High School.

Richard W. Michna, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin J. Michna of 18911 Cranbrook, Torrance, is serving aboard the refrigerated stores ship USS Pictor which departed San
