Nuptial Vows Recited At Evening Ceremony

Nuptial vows were recited by Carolyn Leigh Bledsoe and Robert Louis McLean in an evening wedding ceremony Aug. 25 at Saint Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bledsoe, 2270 Pacific Coast Highway, was given away in marriage by her father. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George McLean, 1210 E. 52nd St., Long Beach.

The Rev. Paul Cox officiated at the double-ring ceremony with 200 guests present.

The bride wore a silk organza dress with a lace bodice and lace appliques on the skirt. It had a scoop neckline and a chapel train bordered with lace. She wore long white gloves. Her headpiece was a Princess Margaret tiara of iridescent pearls holding a fingertip veil of French illusion edged in lace.

BRIDE CARRIES
She carried a Bible and three large, white orchids surrounded by stephanotis and small white orchids with white streamers.

The bride's matron of honor, Mrs. Dennis Bird, wore a yellow organza dress with a full skirt. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Bridesmaids, Deanna Brauns, Lillian Gatewood, Diane Klatte, Patti O'Sullivan, and Mrs. Kendal Beight, wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor. They carried cascades of yellow roses.

THROWING PETALS
Flower girls Wendy Russell and Debbie Mahlman wore lavender organza dresses with lace appliques on the skirts. They carried small lavender baskets with white ribbons and threw white flower petals.

Attending the bridegroom was Hugh L. Winesett Jr., his cousin. Ushers were Joseph Crozer, Hugh L. Winesett Sr., Robert Russell and Patrick O'Sullivan, uncles of the bridegroom, and Robert Butcher. Ring bearer was Robert Mahlman, cousin of the bridegroom.

The matron of honor came from San Jose for the nuptial event and the best man flew in from Arizona.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Fellowship hall of the church. Assisting were Mmes. Dale Miller, Quinten Davis, Norman Sheardown and Robert Butcher.

AT GUEST BOOK
Attending the guest book was Mrs. Darrell Mulvihill. Mother of the bride wore a gown of aqua silk organza with a full, embroidered skirt. Bridegroom's mother wore a blue, silk sheath and white accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of North

Los Cancioneros Begins '62-'63 Season Sept. 11

Los Cancioneros (The Singers), well-known mixed chorus of the South Bay and Harbor area, will begin this 1962-63 season with a rehearsal Sept. 11.

The time and place of the rehearsal will be announced at a later date, chorus members will be notified.

The Singers will welcome the return of Mrs. Thomas H. (Barbara) Mabin, who will direct the group in its 13th season. Mrs. Mabin, who has been associated with the chorus since it began as a neighborhood group in 1949, is well known to Los Cancioneros audiences.

Chapter Begins Term for 62-63

Mrs. Max Stern, president of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah announced recently that the first meeting of the season will be held Tuesday at 11 a.m. in the community room of the American Savings and Loan Association at the South Bay Center, 1959 Kingsdale Ave.

Mrs. Harold Strauss, vice president of the West Coast Region of Hadassah and adviser to the South Bay chapter, will be a guest at the meeting.

Lunch will be served followed by a social. "Members are asked to make up their own tables for cards, Mrs. Stern said.

Members in need of transportation to the meeting may call Mrs. Ben Conde, FR 5-8189. All women in the area interested in learning more about Hadassah are cordially invited to attend, she said. She resumes directorship of the chorus after a leave of absence of one year. Mrs. Mabin was formerly minister of music at the Palos Verdes Neighborhood Church and is currently director of music at St. Luke's Presbyterian Church in Rolling Hills.

There are openings in each section of the chorus and auditions are scheduled for the Sept. 5 and 6 from 7 to 10:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Reg. Roberts, 205 Via Colusa in Hollywood Riviera.

Singers who desire an audition may contact Mrs. Roberts, chairman of Los Cancioneros, at FR 5-3835 for an appointment.

Plans for appearance of the popular chorus during the new season will be announced later.

'Home Beautiful' Event Presented

The first meeting of the fiscal year for the Sisterhood of Congregation Ner Tamid will welcome prospective members and will feature an elaborate program entitled "The Jewish Home Beautiful."

The meeting will be held Sept. 10 at 8 p.m. at the Casa Verde in Palos Verdes.

Rabbi Bernard Wechsberg will deliver the invocation and Mrs. Harlan Cherman will present a narrative of each of the major Jewish holidays. Individual tables will be set depicting each of these holidays, and will be on display after the conclusion of the program.

The tables will be decorated by the following Sisterhood members: Rosh Hashonah, Mrs. Bill Berkoff; Yom Kippur, Mrs. Lenny Bove; Succoth, Mrs. Manny Diamant and Mrs. Robert Feuchtbau; Chanukah, Mrs. Mark Markman and Mrs. Jack Meltzer. Markeltzer will recite the kiddush; Purim, Mrs. Harold Chertock and Mrs. Gilbert Shaftkind; Pesach, Mrs. William Finkel and Mrs. Ed Trabin. Richard Bove will ask the Four Questions; Shavuoth, Mrs. Bernard Wechsberg and Mrs. Howard Berk; Sabbath, Mrs. Norman Rosen and Mrs. E. Tarr. David Tarr will recite the kiddush and Mrs. Tarr will bless the Sabbath candles.

Refreshments will be served following the program. Members and friends are urged to attend this meeting and see this most presentation, said Mrs. Markham.
