Garden Club Entertains With Coffee

Members of the Riviera Garden Club entertained prospective new members at a coffee, Sept. 19 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Stuelpnagel, 5410 Paseo de Pablo, Torrance.

Mrs. Howard Swarthout, membership chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Hollis Jewell in planning the event.

Organized in 1958, the Riviera Garden Club furthers its members' knowledge of gardening and flower arranging and promotes beautification of the community. Civic projects have included land scape developing of Los Arboles Park on Calle de Ricardo, planting of shrubbery along the north side of Vista Montano in the Palos Verdes Riviera, and planting of 25 Evergreen Ash trees along the south side of Vista Montano.

PROGRAMS

Programs this year pre-viewed by Mrs. Robert Short, vice president and program chairman, include corsage-making and holiday decorations, landscaping and flowers of Hawaii, color in the garden, roses, and flower arrangements for Flower Shows. Also planned are a fall field trip to Muscatel's in Los Angeles, the annual progressive Christmas dinner for members and husbands, and the annual spring flower show and tea.

At each meeting members exchange plants at a plant table. Donations received for plants purchased in this way will go to Pennies for Pines, a project of reforestation supported by the club.

CLUB MEETS

The club meets the fourth Tuesday morning of each month. A 9:30 a.m. business meeting precedes the 10 to 11 a.m. program.

Residents of the Riviera interested in garden club membership may contact Mrs. Howard Swarthout at FR 8-1919 for information.

Sept. 17 Mrs. Thomas Stuelpnagel, president, entertained the '62-'63 board at her home. Invited to attend were Mrs. Short; Mrs. John Johnson, secretary; Mrs. Robert Atha, treasurer and ways and means chairman; Mrs. Robert Sauer, civic chairman; Mmes. Hugh Brenamen and Robert Kimes, telephone co-chairmen; and Mrs. Merrill Peavy, publicity chairman.
