Buckley, Strunk Recite Catholic Wedding Vows

Catholic vows joining Christine Buckley in matrimony to James R. Strunk were recited at an 11 a.m. nuptial ceremony Sept. 29 at St. James Church in Redondo Beach.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Buckley, 21317 Grant Ave., Torrance, was given away in marriage by her father. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Strunk, 21402 Howard Ave., Torrance.

Miss Buckley appeared at the altar, which was decorated with two baskets of gladiolas, in a gown of white, chantilly lace. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and orchids.

HER ATTENDANTS

Maid of honor at the double-ring ceremony was Rosemary Buckley. Bridesmaids were Geraldine Secules, Mary Jane Strunk and Susan Dodd. They wore emerald green, brocade dresses and white accessories. Bride's attendants carried bouquets of white roses.

Best man at the nuptial event was Michael Zupparde. His attendants were Terry Likens, Bill Bender and Gary Foster.

PETALS IN AISLE

Sprinkling flower petals in an aisle with bows at the pews was Rosemary Buckley, flower girl. She wore a white dress and green accessories.

Officiating at the ceremony before 125 guests was the Rev. Jerome H. Thompson. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Mary Busch.

Attendant of the guest book was Carol Lynne Doran.

CORONADO TREK

Following the reception, the couple departed for a fourday honeymoon at Coronado.

The newlyweds are both former students of El Camino College. The bride is employed at General Telephone Company and Strunk is employed at Douglas in Santa Monica. They now reside in Santa Monica.

SECRETARIES HEAR SPEECH FROM 'SEER'

J. L. (Roy) Rosenberg, editor emeritus of Inglewood Daily News, will be guest speaker to the Airborne Chapter of National Secretaries Association, International, at the October dinner meeting.

The meeting will be held at Fox Hills Country Club Thursday. Social hour will begin at 6:30 and dinner will be served at 7 p.m.

A California daily newspaper editor for the past 33 years who retired this June, Rosenberg previously edited newspapers in Wyoming, Pennsylvania, New York, and New Jersey.

PRIME INTEREST

Rosenberg's prime outside interest has been in the field of education. He was division leader in the Governor's Conference on Education in Washington, D. C. For the past seven years he has served as a member of the Public Relations Advisory Panel for the California Teachers Association. He devoted one day a month to that activity.

In recent years, Rosenberg has addressed state and west coast regional meetings of five international organizations.

BACKGROUND

For 17 years, Rosenberg was editor of the Inglewood Daily News, 1929-1946. From 1946 to 1959 he was editor and co-owner of the Sacramento Union. He assumed the position as executive editor of the Inglewood Daily News in June, 1959.

Rosenberg is known as a civic leader and has had great influence in the growth of the Centinela Valley. He is a Rotarian and a Shriner.

Subject of Rosenberg's speech to NSA secretaries is "What's Ahead."

INTRIGUING TOPIC

"This intriguing subject, upon which Rosenberg has chosen to discourse, has many possibilities, and stirs the imagination. It could be a question to which everyone would like to know some of the answers — or would we? At least one would like to be in the 'know' — hence the popularity of the seers throughout the ages, said Mrs. Blanche Henke, area NSA president.

QUALIFIES

While Mr. Rosenberg is not exactly a seer he could qualify because his 40 years of newspaper editor experience has placed him in the know of practically all happenings and in the position of evaluating them for importance, she added.

WONDERLAND OF FASHIONS show for Serra High School Mothers Club is rehearsed by Cheryl Brugnola, Debbie McCargar, Ruth Brown and Mrs. E. J. Regalado, board member. Event will begin with cocktails from 7 to 8 p.m. Oct. 15 and 15 at high school gymnasium.

Compton and Van Ness. At show, open to public for $2 per person charge, a mink stole will be raffled. Misses Brugnola and Brown are juniors at North High School in Torrance.

HOSPITAL GRAY LADIES HOLD MEMBERS DRIVE

A campaign to increase their ranks was started Thursday by Harbor General Hospital's "Gray Ladies."

An appeal for more women in communities surrounding the hospital to volunteer services for the Red Cross-sponsored organization was voiced by Mrs. Jean Patterson, chairman of the unit, which now numbers only four.

Gray Ladies are volunteers who visit bed-confined patients twice a week. They aid patients needing someone to contact their families, read to and write them, inform them of events of interest in their own communities and provide such services as off-hospital shopping.

LOSS IN NUMBERS

"Attrition due to changes of address, increased personal activities and family obligations has hurt us numerically," Mrs. Patterson said.

"We especially need Gray Ladies as charter members for the new Harbor General Hospital eight-story unit rapidly nearing completion at Carson Street and Vermont Ave.

Those who join now will be among the first volunteer workers to be of service in one of the most modern hospitals designed to further the continual battle against man's illnesses," she added.

CLUB BEGINS

The gray Ladies date to World War I. They usually serve in veterans hospitals and army hospitals during war emergencies. The latter explains why Gray Ladies are at Harbor General Hospital.

They are "holdovers" from the years when Harbor General was an Army Port of Embarkation unit in World War II.

Persons interested in joining may contact Mrs. Patterson at FR 7-2981 or the San Pedro Red Cross, TE 2-8321.

Christian Women's Club Shows Fall's Hand-Knits

Women of the Palos Verdes Peninsula Christian Women's Club will attend a fall showing of hand-knit costumes at their Tuesday luncheon - meeting at the Fish Shanty in WALTERIA.

The Dorann hand-knits are imported from Italy and will be presented by Mrs. Andrew Sobek and commented by Mrs. Leslie Cox, program chairman.

Mrs. Albert Baxter, chairman of the Christian Women's Club will introduce the feature speaker, Mrs. Ruth E. Narramore. Mrs. Narramore is well-known for her work in the national radio broadcast, "Psychology for Living." She is also a teacher in the public schools, a church director of music and a writer for a national monthly Christian magazine. "One of 10 Christian Women's clubs throughout Los Angeles County, the Palos Verdes Club established in its second year an excellent record for consistently well-attended meetings.

A LITTLE ASSISTANCE is offered John Ballou, patient at Harbor General Hospital, by members of the Gray Ladies volunteer organization. Offering assistance are (l-r) Mmes. Lawrence Pittelkow, Wilson Paterson, unit chairman. The organization Thursday launched a membership drive.
