

CANS OF PAINT, and stencils are used by members of Jefferson Elementary School's PTA safety security committee to "get the message" over to young students. Placing "Use Crosswalks" signs on sidewalks are (l-r) George Marich, principal; and Mmes. Robert Olsen, Wesley Spengler and Rod Twedell, committee members. "This project is being undertaken to alert school children of possible danger areas," Mrs. Olsen said.

Women

CAROLYN PERKIO, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

STUDY GROUPS BEGIN STUDIES

With the year's focus on creativity for Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch, American Association of University Women, the creative arts study groups are offering a variety of discussion sections and classes in the branch program.

This year, guiding all sections of the branch, headed by Mrs. Harold O. Simar, is a program planning committee. Chairman is Mrs. H. C. McLendon, assisted by Mrs.

John C. King, Mrs. Eugene H. Klingler and Mrs. Harry C. Petterson.

Comprising the program development committee are study section chairmen Mrs. Raymond Oddone, treasurer; Mrs. Stuart G. Forbes, hospitality; Mrs. William J. Fleming, publicity.

MUSIC GROUP
Mrs. Robert L. Wattenbarger, arts section chairman, reports that the music appreciation group, led by Mrs. Harry G. Petterson, is filled to overflowing and is now closed. A second group may be formed.

ART HISTORY GROUP
Chairman is Mrs. Wallace P. Landford. Nov. 6, the group will meet at the home of Jenny Tufeld to hear her discuss the art of India, where she recently visited. Assisting her will be Mrs. Max J. Taves.

GALLERY TRIPS
The gallery trips group has plans for two excursions in the near future. Thursday, Oct. 25, it will see exhibits by the California Water Color Association and by Southern California sculptors at the Long Beach Museum. Nov. 8, it will view the rare King Tut exhibit at the Los Angeles County Museum. Persons interested may phone chairman Mrs. Stanley C. Freden, FR 5-5491.

Members may join painting classes in all media instructed by Elsa Nelson, South Bay painter. For arrangements, Mrs. Jerome Prizlow at TE 3-7424, may be contacted. A ceramics class meets Friday mornings at the home of the instructor, Mrs. Harold Hirschland.

BOOK SECTION
The branch has two active book sections. "Anne Morrow Lindbergh" will be the topic when the daytime group meets at 9:30 a.m., Nov. 5, at the home of Mrs. Willard M. Graham. Chairman is Mrs. Gene L. LaHusen.

Women novelists of the 19th century will be discussed by the evening group Nov. 12, at the home of Mrs. Henry Low, 5213 Calle de Arboles, Torrance. Chairman is Mrs. Erwin D. Rhodes.

Auxiliary Gains National Honor

Two awards will be presented the Harbor View Ladies Auxiliary, Fleet Reserve Association Unit 217, at the executive board meeting Oct. 30 at 7:30 p.m. and at the November business meeting Nov. 1 at 8 p.m.

The board meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joel Kellom, 948 W. 12th St., San Pedro, and the business meeting will be held at Ullbrand Hall, 1125 S. Gaffey St.

The two certificate of merit awards were accepted in behalf of the auxiliary by Mrs. Tava V. Miekley, president, at the 35th annual national convention in Tennessee recently.

PUBLICITY, WELFARE
The honor was received for the most outstanding publicity book and most outstanding welfare work done last year. Mrs. John Beauchamp was press chairman and Mrs. Miekley was welfare chairman.

At the seven-day convention, Mrs. Miekley attended as a delegate among 1200 others representing Fleet Reserve chapters all over the nation.

ADDITIONAL HONOR
Another honor to the local chapter was a personal gift from Mrs. Ruth Stevens, national membership chairman, to Unit 217's Mrs. Emily Coffield for bringing the most members to the unit.

Alums Join With Dinner

South Bay Delta Zeta alumnae will hold an exchange dinner with Long Beach alumnae to celebrate the 60th birthday of the founding of Delta Zeta national sorority Oct. 24.

The dinner will be held at Lakewood Country Club, 3101 E. Carson, Lakewood, at 6:30 p.m. Price is $3 per person. Persons interested in reservations or information may call Alma Smith or Ruth Thomas.

This is the second year that South Bay and Long Beach alumnae have held Founders Day joint dinner. Members of Delta Alpha chapter of Delta Zeta at Long Beach State, will attend and provide entertainment.

Delta Zeta sorority was founded Oct. 24, 1902, at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Of the six founders one is still living. She is Mary Collins Galbraith.

May 6 Delta Zeta sorority announced acceptance of Theta Upsilon chapter. Delta now has 143 college chapters.

Couple Entertains With Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Neher, former localities now residing in San Luis Obispo, entertained at dinner at the Pen and Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach.

During the convention, Mrs. Miekley toured Memphis and saw its zoological gardens, aquarium, museum, McKellar Lake and took trips to Millington Training Center. Highlight of the sightseeing tour was a ride on the "Memphis Queen" on Mississippi River.

Three Bethels Attend Picnic

Bethels 36, 34, and 227, International Order of Job's Daughters, recently held their annual Tri-Bethel picnic. It was sponsored by Fathers Clubs of the three Bethels.

Following the picnic participants played games. Betsy O'Dell, honored queen of Bethel 36, and Jane Gustafson, past honored queen took first and second place in the games.

Baseball games between Bethels were played. Bethel 227 received a trophy for winning baseball games three years in succession.

Presenting the trophy to honored queen of Bethel 227 was Ed Johnston, Fathers Club president of Bethel 36.

SPRINGS ATTACHED to Mrs. James McPherson (center), model in the Redondo Beach Dianas comedy fashion show, characterize a spring coat. Also modeling in the show, slated for Monday, 7 p.m., at the Alondra Park activity building, are Sara Mitchell (left) in a feathered cocktail hat, and Mrs. Anthony Credico in a box hat to go with a box suit. —PRESS Photo

Y to Hold Courses For Mothers-to-Be

"Exercise for Pregnancy and Preparation for Childbirth" will be offered by the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St., Torrance, and will be held Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m.

The course is open to women who have completed their 12th week of pregnancy, and have a doctor's written permission. The class consists of eight sessions and cover the following:

How to carry the baby with comfort and best appearance; how to relax at the "drop of the hat;" breathing techniques for easier labor; and post natal exercises for "after baby bulge."

POP'S MEETING
Expectant fathers will have one special meeting. Classes will include a lecture, discussion, question and answer period and exercises on nights offered.

Mrs. Janet Anderson, registered physical therapist, will be instructor. The YWCA, FA 0-2255, may be contacted for information concerning fees.

KNITTING
A class combining hand knitting and machine knitting also will be offered by the YWCA on Wednesdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Instructor will be Mrs. Doris Jirousky, who has operated 23 different kinds of machines and can help with machine problems.

The class will be limited in number to provide individual attention by the instructor. The YWCA may be called for reservations and information regarding fees.

FANCY TEA CUPS COMPETE AT TEA

"Tea Cup Floral Arrangement" will be the theme of the 1 p.m. silver tea and program presented by the Garden section of the Torrance Woman's Club, Oct. 24 at the Women's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Hostesses for the event will be Mrs. Roy Apsey, garden section chairman, and section members. Invited to participate and enter tea cup floral arrangements are members of the Torrance Women's club, Juniors and district and local garden clubs.

Judging entries in four categories will be Mmes. Mildred Gilkes, Virginia Lindsley and Beulah Bennett. Ribbons will be presented winners with the most humorous, most original, most beautiful arrangements. An award also will be given for the best arrangement using one type of flower only. Judging will be from 1:30 to 2 p.m.

At 2 p.m., Chelsea Hendrix, guest speaker, will give a flower arrangement demonstration. Door prize drawing and the silver tea will follow the demonstration.

Torrance Woman's Club is a member of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District.

Trip to Europe Talk Highlights Club's Meeting

Torrance Woman's club will hold its regular business meeting today at the club house following potluck luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

The program will be given by Mrs. H. E. Barbey, club member. She will show colored slides and tell of her trip through Europe last summer.

The drama section of the club will sponsor a beginners' square dance class Oct. 22 and 29 at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave., Torrance.

Myrna Cheek, Torrance resident and noted California caller, will be instructor. Classes are from 8 to 10 p.m. Donation of $1 per person will be accepted.

For information, Mrs. J. G. Laird, drama chairman, FR 1-3843, may be contacted.

TEA CUP FLORAL arrangements are made by members of Garden Section of Torrance Woman's Club as they prepare for Oct. 24 silver tea and program at 1 p.m. at the Women's Clubhouse. Getting ready for event are (l-r) Mmes. Joseph P. Bay, polishing tea pot; and V. E. Benstead, R. L. Rudy and Roy J. Apsey, preparing tea cup arrangements for entry in section's contests. Mrs. Apsey is section chairman. —PRESS Photo