Camp Fire Girls Honor Junior Hi

Seventh and eighth grade Camp Fire Girls of the Harbor area will be guests of the Camp Fire Girl organization at a reception today at the Torrance YWCA. Simultaneous receptions will be held in the entire Los Angeles area.

The girls will be welcomed to the new level of the Camp Fire Girl program by District Committee members. Each group will participate in some phase of the entertainment. The new costume which has been designed for them will be modeled. As part of the ceremony, each girl will be presented with her Junior Hi pin, also newly designed. The girls' parents have been invited to share in the festivities.

This "new look" for girls of junior high age level is but one of many enrichments and revisions in the Camp Fire Girl program which have been introduced this fall as part of a continuing philosophy of up-dated programming which, for 52 years has provided a program designed to offer fun and adventure for girls.

PTA News

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL. An annual Halloween carnival will be held by Riviera PTA Oct. 27 on the school playground from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Theme is "Pirates Cove."

Invading pirates and costumed spooks will gather to parade on the playground at 10 a.m.

The winner of a "Pieces of Eight" cash treasure will be selected by an elected king and queen of the carnival. The royal couple will officially open the "Pirates Cove" carnival by directing the sounding of trumpets and freeing of clouds of balloons.

A special pirates mess including pizza, hot dogs, homemade cookies and cake as well as hot and cold drinks will be offered to the invaders.

There will be magic shows, games, stunts, movies, dancing and booths for gifts, white elephants, baked goods and souvenirs. Rattling bones and ghostly screams in the haunted mouse promise to raise the eye patch on Captain Kidd himself.

Ways and Means Chairman Mrs. E. H. Schefers is directing ticket sales at the school gate from Oct. 24 to Oct. 26 from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. as well as during the carnival.

GUEST SPEAKER. Mrs. Leonard Hummel, president 33rd District CCPT will welcome Dr. Albert Karr of El Camino College as guest speaker for the Fall Conference convening at Montebello Sr. High School Oct. 25, 9:45 a.m. to noon.

Dr. Karr is a professor of American History and International Relations at El Camino and lectures on Colonial History at Long Beach State.

Last year he toured the Civil War battlefields on a research sabbatical. He was active in naval intelligence in World War II as a translator of Japanese documents and for prisoners. He will speak on "Our Heritage," the first phase of the '62-'63 theme, "Our Heritage-American Family, American Faith, American Freedom."

He will be presented by Mrs. Guy Moothart, chairman of the program committee, which also includes Mrs. R. D. Macy, Mrs. R. A. Ashby, Mrs. Jules Ross of Hawthorne, and Mrs. Eugene Laxton, Torrance.

The membership will be welcomed by Mrs. Sam Arakelian, Montebello Council president; Robert S. Heaman, principal of Montebello High School; Dr. John C. Whinnery, Superintendent Montebello Unified School District; and Dr. C. C. Trillingham, superintendent for Los Angeles County.

Mrs. H. Earl Pemberton will present a film, "The Pledge of Allegiance is Our Heritage." The '62-'64 33rd District board will be introduced by Mrs. Hummel.

Conference music will be presented by Mrs. Lois Williams who will give an interlude of patriotic numbers on the organ. Mrs. C. A. Wiggins of Long Beach, fall conference chairman, and Mrs. Moothart of Lynwood are in charge of arrangements.

Route maps and parking information may be secured from council presidents. Conference committee included Gertrude Blackstock, Mirada, Mrs. Donald J. Baker, hostesses; Mrs. Jack Campbell, registration; and Mrs. Cecil Davey, music, Torrance.

'FAMILY RELATIONS'. Flavian PTA heard J. Kenneth Edwins speak on "Family Relations" at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 18 in the school cafeteria.

Chairmen were Mrs. Duane Davin, mental health, and Mrs. R. L. Pierce, magazines, publications and emblems. Refreshments were served in the home economics room by mothers of seventh and eighth graders.

Flavian will hold its Three Ring Circus Nov. 3 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Columbia PTA will sponsor its second fund-raising event, a rummage sale, this year. Mrs. Norman Appel, ways and means chairman, said the sale will be held at the "Hitch Rack Rummage Center," 15636 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale.

The Sale will run Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 22 and 23. Hours will be 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
