Ad Agency Opens New Plaza Office

Celebrating the formal opening of their new offices this week in the Malaga Cove Plaza of Palos Verdes Estates is the Bryan Hardwick Advertising Agency.

The agency is one of the few in the South Bay offering complete service including everything from brochures and catalogues to television programming and national magazine advertising.

According to agency head Bryan Hardwick, the guiding principle of the agency has been to combine smart merchandising with the distinctive look. "Competition for readership is so great in all fields that if your ads are not standing out on the page your money may well be wasted," states Hardwick.
