

University Women Hear Copywriter

Orian Brown, advertising executive, was featured speaker at a general meeting of the American Association of University Women, Manhattan Beach Branch, Monday evening at the Community Church, 303 South Peck Ave., Manhattan Beach.

In his talk, "The Philosophy of a Copywriter," Mr. Brown presented a discussion of the positive role advertising plays in the social and economic structure of the United States.

Chairman of the Plans Board for the Los Angeles office of McCann-Erickson, Inc., internationally-known advertising agency, he is currently developing the United Way campaign.

Beginning as a copywriter, he has served in various capacities during ten years with the agency. He has been director of commercials for the Art Linkletter and Tennessee Ernie Ford shows.

Mr. Brown earned a bachelor's degree in sociology at Hiram University, Hiram, Ohio. He has done graduate study in drama, specializing in Greek and Roman comedy, at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles. He has lectured in advertising at the University of Southern California and at Los Angeles City College.

He is a resident of Manhattan Beach. His wife Eileen is a charter member of the local AAUW branch.

Hospitality committee for the evening included: Mmes. Hugh Wells, Peter Vutz, Kenneth L. Strite, and Roger Schaefer, chairman.

Membership in AAUW is open to graduates of colleges and universities accredited by the organization. South Bay women interested in applying for membership are invited to contact Mrs. Ronald Webb, FR 2-4167, membership chairman, for additional information.

MOTHERS OF TWINS CLUB PREPARES FOR HOLIDAYS

South Bay Mothers of Twins Club members will get an early start on Thanksgiving and Christmas home decorations when they meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro.

Showing them how they can easily create professional-type floral arrangements for the coming holiday season will be Bill Burtch of Lenore's Florists in Redondo Beach.

Mr. Burtch, floral designer who won the judge's trophy at Disneyland's Bal Masque Ball last year, will fashion holiday arrangements and answer questions from the floor.

Emphasis will be on the use of easily obtained dried plant materials combined with fresh seasonal flowers.

He will also reveal how to make gay and simple holiday flower corsages.

Mr. Burtch will demonstrate both exterior and interior home decorations.

Mrs. Glenn Smith president will announce projected plans of the newly-created philanthropy three committee. Until recently the club concentrated on two main philanthropic projects during the year. Philanthropy Three was recently established to provide emergency funds for short-term immediate needs.

The committee, headed by Mrs. Norven McKean of San Pedro, is composed of Mmes. Robert Campbell, Gordon Garrett, Tom Previo and Jerry Seimbretcher.

Club members will bring canned goods for the Thanksgiving dinner for the club's needy family to tomorrow's meeting.

Mrs. Robert Jackson of Rolling Hills has announced that children of club members are invited to attend the club's annual Christmas party, Dec. 1, at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church in Redondo Beach. "The Enchanted Toy Shop" with the famous Bob Baker Marionettes, will be featured. Santa Claus will also appear before the expected 250 children to present each one with appropriate gifts.

Mothers of twins or triplets in the South Bay area desiring membership information are asked to telephone Mrs. Ronald Eisman of Torrance.

MRS. ARNOLD HILL, former Virginia Dehrdorff

Virginia Dehrdorff Weds Arnold Hill

Miss Virginia Dehrdorff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dehrdorff of London, W. Va., became the bride of Arnold Hill, son of Delbert Hill of Arizona and Mrs. William Azasalon of Santa Ana, in a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Murray Gibbons at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 10 at Redondo Beach First Methodist Church.

The bride formerly resided at 22524 Hickory Ave., Torrance, and the bridegroom at 576 York Ave., Hawthorne.

For the ceremony the sanctuary was decorated with sprays of chrysanthemums and red carnations and the altar with white chrysanthemums and white carnations.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a peau de soie sheath gown fashioned with a scoop neckline outlined in satin and three-quarter length sleeves. The overskirt terminated in a short train. A peau de soie rose with a pearl droplet highlighted the veil. She carried a white bible with a white orchid and cascade streamer of white carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Deanna Calvert of Toledo, O. who was dressed in a red velvet sheath with a satin cummerbund and matching satin headpiece. Her bouquet of China mums and red garnet roses had a cascade of white carnations. The bridesmaids were the Misses Sharon Brooks of Selma, Wash. Karen Gass and Sandy Smith. They wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor.

Best man was Delbert Hill, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were James Gregerson, Rodger Gregerson and Donald Boyd.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony. Presiding over the guest book was Miss Karoline Michaelis.

Following a San Francisco honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Hawthorne.

A graduate of Montgomery High School, Montgomery, W. Va., the bride has been employed as a medical secretary for the Cabot Medical Group in Torrance.

The bridegroom is employed at Space Technical Laboratories in Redondo Beach. He is a graduate of Santa Ana High School, Santa Ana.
